Biologically Bankrupt Sins Of The Fathers:

Biologically Bankrupt Adair Sanders,2010-11 The biblical warning that the sins of the fathers are visited on the succeeding generations is nowhere better demonstrated than in Biologically Bankrupt In this sprawling eye opening memoir Adair Sanders explores the dysfunctional family relationships that led to years of abuse failed relationships depression and alcoholism and the remarkable redemption she found at her father s deathbed Set primarily in Chattanooga Tenn Biologically Bankrupt introduces readers to a memorable cast There s Little Dickie Sanders father who remains oddly attached to his mother rails against gays blacks and Catholics and maniacally controls the lives of his wife and children Sanders brother fails to do much of anything after high school glory days but remains emotionally and financially dependent on their father even as he emulates the abuse with his own family Sanders mother attempts to leave her marriage but remains trapped and endures a lifetime of disappointment Then there s Sanders first husband whose physical beatings give way to emotional attacks just as harsh And that s just for starters Through it all Sanders traces the lineage of broken relationships back to her profoundly imperfect father s relationship with his mother And it is through this understanding of seemingly illogical callousness that she finally learns to accept the man and his faults Frank heartfelt and unflinchingly real Biologically Bankrupt peels back the layers of family bonds and Southern society while it reveals essential truths about sexual repression racism class
