Silver Lake Bohemia Michael Locke, Vincent Brook, 2016-11-07 Since the early 1900s Silver Lake has been a magnet for iconoclastic writers architects and political activists Famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright who designed the Hollyhock House for socialist and oil heiress Aline Barnsdall drew a wave of visionary modernists to the area Local civil rights advocate Loren Miller spearheaded the fight against housing discrimination Silver Lake's Black Cat bar and Harry Hay's Mattachine Society were central to the early gay rights movement Literary artists Anis Nin and James Leo Herlihy made the neighborhood their home as did other notables like first lady of baseball Effa Manley and Hobo Millionaire James Eads How Michael Locke and Vincent Brook chronicle these and other people and places that helped make Silver Lake the bohemian epicenter of Los Angeles

Overdrive Wim de Wit, Christopher James Alexander, 2013 This is a fascinating and intelligently illustrated study of architectural innovation in Los Angeles From 1940 to 1990 Los Angeles rapidly evolved into one of the most populous and influential industrial economic and creative capitals in the world During this era the region was transformed into a laboratory for cutting edge architecture Overdrive examines these experiments and their impacts on modern design reframes the perceptions of Los Angeles dynamic built environment and amplifies the exploration of the city's vibrant architectural legacy The drawings models and images highlighted by Overdrive reveal the complex and often underappreciated facets of Los Angeles and illustrate how the metropolis became an internationally recognized destination with a unique design vocabulary canonical landmarks and a coveted lifestyle

Dwell, 2008-07 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

California Design, 1930-1965 Living In a Modern Way Wendy Kaplan, 2011 The first comprehensive examination of California's mid century modern design generously illustrated In 1951 designer Greta Magnusson Grossman observed that California design was not a superimposed style but an answer to present conditions It has developed out of our own preferences for living in a modern way California design influenced the material culture of the entire country in everything from architecture to fashion This generously illustrated book which accompanies a major exhibition at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art is the first comprehensive examination of California's mid century modern design It begins by tracing the origins of a distinctively California modernism in the 1930s by such European migrants as Richard Neutra, Rudolph Schindler and Kem Weber it finds other specific design influences and innovations in solid color commercial ceramics inspirations from Mexico and Asia new schools for design training new concepts about leisure and the conversion of wartime technologies to peacetime use exemplified by Charles and Ray Eames's plywood and fiberglass furniture The heart of California Design is the modern California home famously characterized by open plans conducive to outdoor living The layouts of modernist homes by Pierre Koenig, Craig Ellwood and Raphael Soriano for example were intended to blur the distinction between indoors and out Homes were furnished with products from Heath Ceramics, Van Keppel Green and Architectural Pottery as well as other previously unheralded companies and designers Many objects were designed to be multifunctional pool and patio furniture that was equally suitable indoors lighting that was both task and ambient bookshelves that served as room dividers and bathing suits that would turn into ensembles appropriate for indoor entertainment California Design includes 350 images most in color of furniture ceramics metalwork architecture graphic and industrial design film textiles and fashion and ten incisive essays that trace the rise of the California design aesthetic of wartime technologies to peacetime use exemplified by Charles and Ray Eames's plywood and fiberglass furniture The heart of California Design is the modern California home famously characterized by open plans conducive to outdoor living The layouts of modernist homes by Pierre Koenig, Craig Ellwood and Raphael Soriano for example were intended to blur the distinction between indoors and out Homes were furnished with products from Heath Ceramics, Van Keppel Green and Architectural Pottery as well as other previously unheralded companies and designers Many objects were designed to be multifunctional pool and patio furniture that was equally suitable indoors lighting that was both task and ambient bookshelves that served as room dividers and bathing suits
