Bewitching Women, Pious Men Aihwa Ong, Michael G Peletz, 1995-09-07 This collection presents new ethnographic research framed in terms of new theoretical developments and contains fine scholarship and lively writing Janet Hoskins University of Southern California This is a wonderful collection of essays At one level they tell us about the transformation and often painful fragmentation of gendered selves in post colonial states and a speeded up transnational world At another level they display the continuing power of ethnography to surprise and move us Sherry Ortner University of California Berkeley

Gender Pluralism Michael G. Peletz, 2009-06-01 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2009 This book examines three big ideas difference legitimacy and pluralism Of chief concern is how people construe and deal with variation among fellow human beings Why under certain circumstances do people embrace even sanctify differences or at least begrudgingly tolerate them and why in other contexts are people less receptive to difference sometimes overtly hostile to it and bent on its eradication What are the cultural and political conditions conducive to the positive valorization and acceptance of difference And conversely what conditions undermine or erode such positive views and acceptance This book examines pluralism in gendered fields and domains in Southeast Asia since the early modern era which historians and anthropologists of the region commonly define as the period extending roughly from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries

Embodied Entanglements: Gender, Identity, and the Corporeal in Asia Zawissová, Halina, Strafella, Giorgio, Lavička, Martin, Ideas on the human body gender and identity lie at the core of many socio political issues and cultural trends in Asia today while also inspiring innovative research on artistic expression from Asia's past By focusing on socio political as well as cultural issues from diverse geographical and historical contexts this book highlights complex links and interactions that bind these three interpretative axes How do bodies become conduits for the expression and negotiation of gender and other identities What do the lived experiences of women and LGBTQ people in Asia reveal about biopolitics normative expectations and value systems in different societies How does art reflect the representation and fashioning of gendered bodies and ambiguous identities Cutting across the quotidian and the avant garde activism and art violence and pleasure as well as the intimate and the political this book sheds new light on Asian cultures and societies spanning India Indonesia Japan mainland China Taiwan and Thailand affirming thus the region's significance in broader debates on biopolitics gender and human dignity

The Southeast Asian Woman Writes Back Grace V. S. Chin, Kathrina Mohd Daud, 2017-12-04 This collection of essays examines how Southeast Asian women writers engage with the grand narratives of nationalism and the modern nation state by exploring the representations of gender identity and nation in the postcolonial literatures of Brunei Darussalam Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines Bringing to light the selected works of overlooked local women writers and providing new analyses of those produced by internationally known women authors and artists the essays situate regional literary developments within historicized geopolitical landscapes to offer incisive analyses and readings on how women and the feminine are imagined represented and positioned in relation to the Southeast Asian nation The book which features both cross country comparative analyses and country specific investigations also considers the ideas of the nation and the state by investigating related ideologies rhetoric apparatuses and discourses and the ways in which they affect women s bodies subjectivities and lived realities in both historical and contemporary Southeast Asian contexts By considering how these literary expressions critique contest or are complicit in nationalist projects and state mandated agendas the collection contributes to the overall regional and comparative discourses on gender identity and nation in Southeast Asian studies

Women and Sharia Law in Northern Indonesia Dina Afrianty, 2015-05-01 This book examines the life of women in the Indonesian province of Aceh where Islamic law was introduced in 1999 It outlines how women have had to face the formalisation of conservative understandings of sharia law in regulations and new state institutions over the last decade or so how they have responded to this forming non governmental organisations NGOs that have shaped local discourse on women s rights equality and status in Islam and how these NGOs have strategised demanded reform and enabled Acehnese women to take active roles in influencing the processes of democratisation and Islamisation that are shaping the province The book shows that although the formal introduction of Islamic law in Aceh has placed restrictions on women s freedom paradoxically it has not prevented them from engaging in public life It argues that the democratisation of Indonesia which allowed Islamisation to occur continues to act as an important factor shaping Islamisation s current trajectory that the introduction of Islamic law has motivated women s NGOs and other elements of civil society to become more involved in wider discussions about the future of sharia in Aceh and that Indonesia s recent decentralisation policy and growing local Islamism have enabled the emergence of different religious and local adat practices which do not necessarily correspond to overall national trends
