International Bibliography of Business History Francis Goodall,Terry Gourvish,Steven Tolliday,2013-12-16 The field of business history has changed and grown dramatically over the last few years There is less interest in the traditional company centred approach and more concern about the wider business context With the growth of multi national corporations in the 1980s international and inter firm comparisons have gained in importance In addition there has been a move towards improving links with mainstream economic financial and social history through techniques and outlook The International Bibliography of Business History brings all of the strands together and provides the user with a comprehensive guide to the literature in the field The Bibliography is a unique volume which covers the depth and breadth of research in business history This exhaustive volume has been compiled by a team of subject specialists from around the world under the editorship of three prestigious business historians

Hong Kong Takes Flight John D. Wong, 2024-11-01 Commercial aviation took shape in Hong Kong as the city developed into a powerful economy Rather than accepting air travel as an inevitability in the era of global mobility John Wong argues that Hong Kong's development into a regional and global airline hub was not preordained By underscoring the shifting process through which this hub emerged Hong Kong Takes Flight aims to describe globalization and global networks in the making Viewing the globalization of the city through the prism of its airline industry Wong examines how policymakers and businesses asserted themselves against international partners and competitors in a bid to accrue socioeconomic benefits negotiated their interests in Hong Kong's economic success and articulated their expressions of modernity

Hubbing for Tourists Evan R. Ward, 2023-09-05 Dubai International Airport DXB Emirates Airlines and the Burj al Arab Changi International Airport SIN Singapore Airlines and Marina Bay Sands Chek Lap Kok HKG Cathay Pacific and The Peninsula Hotel Kingsford Smith SYD Qantas Airlines and the Wentworth Hotel What do these collective entities have in common Not only do they link global air hubs with city centric long haul airlines and destination worthy hotels but they are the product of a distinct strategy to boost tourism development through the synergies created by aviation development This volume explores the evolution of tourism development through synergies created by airline airport and hotel development in the Persian Gulf namely Dubai Southeast Asia primarily Singapore and East Asia mainly Hong Kong during the twentieth and twenty first centuries These hubs included but went beyond traditional models of hotel development as models for economically viable tourism programs particularly after World War II The book also examines how such systems integrated travelers airlines and airports in Australasia and Europe while at the same time competing with imperial systems of airport and airline development This book illuminates the strategies behind and competition between cities during the current century for air traffic tourists and airlines transiting between Europe Southeast Asia and Australasia

The Cityscapes of Taipei, Hong Kong, and Singapore during the Cold War Tze-ki Hon, Ying-kit Chan, 2025-10-01 This volume presents a comparative analysis of three key cities Hong Kong Singapore and Taipei during the Cold War Strategically positioned within international trade networks these cities also served as critical nodes for both regional conflicts and cooperation The comparison primarily focuses on their urban landscapes drawing on the memories embedded in their collective memoryscapes the imagery presented in their filmscapes and the perceptions of their inhabitants as reflected in fiction and films that portrayed urban life and the experiences of ordinary people The Cityscapes of Taipei Hong Kong and Singapore during the Cold War explores both the shared characteristics of these cities as frontiers in the bipolar global system divided between Communism and the Free World and their distinctive features as unique spaces shaped by their own meanings and opportunities
