the conference entitled The American Village in a Global Setting consider elements of Lewis world through today's lens In Part I his version of community is compared to that documented in other ways including architecture and television Scholars address issues such as anti-Semitism theocratic communities the Irish and outdoor life In Part II the concept of community is expanded to the visions of other authors including his contemporaries such as Martha Ostenso Josephine Donovan and Willa Cather as well as more recent writers In Part III today's social and cultural issues in America are addressed expressing the global and interdisciplinary intent of the conference And last Part IV continues the global theme addressing international communities and pedagogical philosophies through film and literature
