Spirits and Ships Andrea Acri, Roger Blench, Alexandra Landmann, 2017-03-10 This volume seeks to foreground a borderless history and geography of South Southeast and East Asian littoral zones that would be maritime focused and thereby explore the ancient connections and dynamics of interaction that favoured the encounters among the cultures found throughout the region stretching from the Indian Ocean littorals to the Western Pacific from the early historical period to the present Transcending the artificial boundaries of macro regions and nation states and trying to bridge the arbitrary divide between inherently cosmopolitan high cultures e.g. Sanskrit/Sinitic or Islamic and local or indigenous cultures this multidisciplinary volume explores the metaphor of Monsoon Asia as a vast geo environmental area inhabited by speakers of numerous language phyla which for millennia has formed an integrated system of littorals where crops goods ideas cosmologies and ritual practices circulated on the sea routes governed by the seasonal monsoon winds The collective body of work presented in the volume describes Monsoon Asia as an ideal theatre for circulatory dynamics of cultural transfer interaction acceptance selection and avoidance and argues that despite the rich ethnic linguistic and sociocultural diversity a shared pattern of values norms and cultural models is discernible throughout the region

Blanket Weaving in the Southwest Joe Ben Wheat, 2022-06-21 Exquisite blankets sarapes and ponchos handwoven by southwestern peoples are admired throughout the world Despite many popularized accounts serious gaps have existed in our understanding of these textiles gaps that one man devoted years of scholarly attention to address During much of his career anthropologist Joe Ben Wheat 1916-1997 earned a reputation as a preeminent authority on southwestern and plains prehistory Beginning in 1972 he turned his scientific methods and considerable talents to historical questions as well He visited dozens of museums to study thousands of nineteenth century textiles oversaw chemical tests of dyes from hundreds of yarns and sought out obscure archives to research the material and documentary basis for textile development His goal was to establish a key for southwestern textile identification based on the traits that distinguish the Pueblo Navajo and Spanish American blanket weaving traditions and thereby provide a better way of identifying and dating pieces of unknown origin Wheat's years of research resulted in a masterful classification scheme for southwestern textiles and a book that establishes an essential baseline for understanding craft production Nearly completed before Wheat's death Blanket Weaving in the Southwest describes the evolution of southwestern textiles from the early historic period to the late nineteenth century establishes a revised chronology for its development and traces significant changes in materials techniques and designs Wheat first relates what Spanish observers learned about the state of native weaving in the region a historical review that reveals the impact of new technologies and economies on a traditional craft Subsequent chapters deal with fibers yarns dyes and fabric structures including an unprecedented examination of the nature variety and origins of bayeta yarns and with tools weaves and finishing techniques A final chapter constructed by editor Ann Hedlund from Wheat s notes provides clues to his evolving ideas about the development of textile design Hedlund herself a respected textile scholar and a protégé of Wheat s is uniquely qualified to interpret the many notes he left behind and brings her own understanding of weaving to every facet of the text She has ensured that Wheat s research is applicable to the needs of scholars collectors and general readers alike Throughout the text Wheat discusses and evaluates the distinct traits of the three textile traditions More than 200 photos demonstrate these features including 191 color plates depicting a vast array of chief blankets shoulder blankets ponchos sarapes diyugi mantas and dresses from museum collections nationwide In addition dozens of line drawings demonstrate the fine points of technique concerning weaves edge finishes and corner tassels Through his groundbreaking and painstaking research Wheat created a new view of southwestern textile history that goes beyond any other book on the subject Blanket Weaving in the Southwest addresses a host of unresolved issues in textile research and provides critical tools for resolving them It is an essential resource for anyone who appreciates the intricacy of these outstanding creations The Fabric of Civilization Virginia Postrel, 2020-11-10 From Neanderthal string to 3D knitting an expansive global history that highlights how textiles truly changed the world Wall Street Journal The story of humanity is the story of textiles as old as civilization itself Since the first thread was spun the need for textiles has driven technology business politics and culture In The Fabric of Civilization Virginia Postrel synthesizes groundbreaking research from archaeology economics and science to reveal a surprising history From Minoans exporting wool colored with precious purple dye to Egypt to Romans arrayed in costly Chinese silk the cloth trade paved the crossroads of the ancient world Textiles funded the Renaissance and the Mughal Empire they gave us banks and bookkeeping Michelangelo s David and the Taj Mahal The cloth business spread the alphabet and arithmetic propelled chemical research and taught people to think in binary code Assiduously researched and deftly narrated The Fabric of Civilization tells the story of the world s most influential commodity Předivo civilizace Virginia Postrelová, 2024-03-07 Obratn utkan p b h zbo kter ovlivnilo chod sv ta Textil je star jako civilizace sama Od doby kdy n kdo up edl prvn nit se z pot eby vyr b t st le v t mno stv l tek stal hnac motor technologi obchodu politiky a kultury V knize P edivo civilizace propojuje Virginia Postrel v sledky nejnov j ch v zkum z oblasti archeologie ekonomie a v dy a odhaluje p ekvapivou historii textilu Od M n jc vyv ej c ch vlnu obarvenou vz cn m purpurov m barvivem do Egypta a k man m od n m do drah ho nsk ho hedv b obchod s l tkami posouval vp ed cel starov k sv t Textil financoval renesanci a Mughalskou i dal n m banky a etnictv Michelangelova Davida i T d Mahal Obchod s l tkami roz il abecedu a aritmetiku podpo il chemick v zkum a nau il lidi myslet v bin rn m k du Fascinuj c kniha se irok m z b rem Zaj mav a pou n zobrazuje z sadn roli jakou v d jin ch hr ly l tky Publishers Weekly Vyd v me se na cestu stejn p sobivou a prom nlivou jako je sama hedv bn stezka P edivo civilizace je

Patterned Splendour Lesley Pullen, 2021-03-02 There exist numerous free standing figurative sculptures produced in Java between the eighth and fifteenth centuries whose dress display detailed textile patterns This surviving body of sculpture carved in stone and cast in metal varying in both size and condition remains in archaeological sites and museums in Indonesia and worldwide The equatorial climate of Java has precluded any textiles from this period surviving Therefore this book argues the textiles represented on these sculptures offer a unique insight into the patterned splendour of the textiles in circulation during this period This volume contributes to our knowledge of the textiles in circulation at that time by including the first comprehensive record of this body of sculpture together with the textile patterns classified into a typology of styles within each chapter
