original and comprehensive assessment of the hypotheses concerning the origin of resurrection Christology It fills a gap in the literature by addressing these issues using a transdisciplinary approach involving historical critical study of the New Testament theology analytic philosophy psychology and comparative religion Using a novel analytic framework this book demonstrates that a logically exhaustive list of hypotheses concerning the claims of Jesus post mortem appearances and the outcome of Jesus body can be formulated It addresses these hypotheses in detail including sophisticated combinations of hallucination hypothesis with cognitive dissonance memory distortion and confirmation bias Addressing writings from both within and outside of Christianity it also demonstrates how a comparative religion approach might further illuminate the origins of Christianity This is a thorough study of arguably the key event in the formation of the Christian faith As such it will be of keen interest to theologians New Testament scholars philosophers and scholars of religious studies The Lutheran
