Beyond Windrush Rethinking Postwar Anglophone Caribbean Literature Caribbean Studies Series:

Beyond Windrush J. Dillon Brown, Leah Reade Rosenberg, 2015-07-10 This edited collection challenges a long sacrosanct paradigm Since the establishment of Caribbean literary studies scholars have exalted an elite cohort of migrant novelists based in postwar London a group often referred to as the Windrush writers in tribute to the SS Empire Windrush whose 1948 voyage from Jamaica inaugurated large scale Caribbean migration to London In critical accounts this group is typically reduced to the canonical troika of V S Naipaul George Lamming and Sam Selvon effectively treating these three authors as the tradition's founding fathers These founders have been properly celebrated for producing a complex anticolonial nationalist literature However their canonization has obscured the great diversity of postwar Caribbean writers producing an enduring but narrow definition of West Indian literature Beyond Windrush stands out as the first book to reexamine and redefine the writing of this crucial era Its fourteen original essays make clear that in the 1950s there was already a wide spectrum of West Indian men and women Afro Caribbean Indo Caribbean and white creole who were writing publishing and even painting Many lived in the Caribbean and North America rather than London Moreover these writers addressed subjects overlooked in the more conventionally conceived canon including topics such as queer sexuality and the environment This collection offers new readings of canonical authors Lamming Roger Mais and Andrew Salkey hitherto marginalized authors Ismith Khan Elma Napier and John Hearne and commonly ignored genres memoir short stories and journalism

Territories of the Soul Nadia Ellis, 2015-08-27 Nadia Ellis attends to African diasporic belonging as it comes into being through black expressive culture Living in the diaspora Ellis asserts means existing between claims to land and imaginative flights unmoored from the earth that is to live within the territories of the soul Drawing on the work of Jose Muoz Ellis connects queerness utopian potential with diasporic aesthetics Occupying the territory of the soul being neither here nor there creates in diasporic subjects feelings of loss desire and a sensation of a pull from elsewhere Ellis locates these phenomena in the works of C L R James the testy encounter between George Lamming and James Baldwin at the 1956 Congress of Negro Artists and Writers in Paris the elusiveness of the queer diasporic subject in Andrew Salkey's novel Escape to an Autumn Pavement and the trope of spirit possession in Nathaniel Mackey's writing and Burning Spear's reggae Ellis use of queer and affect theory shows how geographies claim diasporic subjects in ways that nationalist or masculinist tropes can never fully capture Diaspora Ellis concludes is best understood as a mode of feeling and belonging one fundamentally shaped by the experience of loss

Higher Education's Leadership in Climate Action and Sustainability

Núñez, Elsa M., Szczyś, Patricia, 2025-06-12 Higher education institutions are positioned to lead the global response to climate change and drive progress toward sustainability Through their core missions of education research and community engagement universities and colleges serve as innovation hubs for developing climate solutions shaping public policy and preparing the next generation of environmental leaders By integrating sustainability into curricula reducing campus carbon footprints and fostering interdisciplinary collaboration higher education plays a critical role in modeling and advancing systemic change As institutions with global reach and influence universities have both the opportunity and the responsibility to lead by example in addressing today s environmental challenges Higher Education s Leadership in Climate Action and Sustainability explores the ways in which higher education tackles climate change and inspires the next generation of leaders to take decisive action It examines how institutions in higher education lead by example providing the skills and knowledge students require to meet the challenges of climate change and sustainable development in their future workplaces and communities This book covers topics such as ethics and law curricula and climate change and is a useful resource for policymakers educators climatologists academicians researchers and environmental scientists Travels in

Time Astrid Erll, Professor of Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Astrid Erll, 2025-05-20 In Travels in Time Astrid Erll addresses the question of how collective memory emerges through motion the movements of people media forms and practices Grounded in literary cultural and media memory studies the essays discuss the ways in which families and generations are shaped by the past how media such as literature film and photography make and remake collective memory or the cultural dimensions of trauma flashbulb memories or implicit memory They also consider traveling memory through the repercussions of recent historical events and long term mnemonic processes ranging from Greek antiquity to British colonialism in India and from the First and Second World Wars to 9 11 and Covid 19 Living with Strangers Chiara

Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2020-06-03 Living with Strangers examines the history and cultural representation of bed sitting rooms and boarding houses in England from the early twentieth century to the present Providing a historical overview the authors explore how these alternative domestic spaces came to provide shelter for a diverse demographic of working women and men retired army officers gay people students bohemians writers artists performers migrants and asylum seekers as well as shady figures and criminals Drawing on historical records case studies and examples from literature art and film the book examines how the prevalence and significance of bedsits and boarding houses in novels plays detective stories Ealing comedies and contemporary fiction and film produced its own genre of narrative The nine chapters are written by an international range of established and emerging scholars in the fields of literary studies art and film history political theory queer studies and cultural studies A lively highly original study Living with Strangers makes a significant contribution to the cross disciplinary field of home studies and provides insight into a crucial aspect of British cultural history It is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history literary studies sociology gender and sexuality studies film studies and cultural studies Edinburgh Companion to Queer Reading Declan Kavanagh, Jeremy Chow, 2024-11-30 What does it mean to read queerly The Edinburgh Companion to Queer Reading upholds intersectional thinking to recognise the wide currency and appeal of queer studies for a new generation of scholars activists students and interested allies Its four interconnecting parts transing queer readings reading queer ecologies queer reading as practice and reading queer futures speak to and help to critique and foreground expansive queer epistemologies Contributors evocatively explore the relationships between queerness and genders embodiments race narrative methodology history literature media and art Bringing together emerging and established queer theorists this timely collection demonstrates how germane queer readings theories and companions are to the livelihood of interdisciplinary research and humanistic inquiry in the 2020s Contemporary Archipelagic Thinking Michelle Stephens,Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel,2020-09-15 Contemporary Archipelagic Thinking takes as point of departure the insights of Antonio Benítez Rojo Derek Walcott and Édouard Glissant on how to conceptualize the Caribbean as a space in which networks of islands are constitutive of a particular epistemology or way of thinking This rich volume takes questions that have explored the Caribbean and expands them to a global Anthropocenic framework This anthology explores the archipelagic as both a specific and a generalizable geo historical and cultural formation occurring across various planetary spaces including the Mediterranean and Aegean Seas the Caribbean basin the Malay archipelago Oceania and the creole islands of the Indian Ocean As an alternative geo formal unit archipelagoes can interrogate epistemologies ways of reading and thinking and methodologies informed implicitly or explicitly by more continental paradigms and perspectives Keeping in mind the structuring tension between land and water and between island and mainland relations the archipelagic focuses on the types of relations that emerge island to island when island groups are seen not so much as sites of exploration identity sociopolitical formation and economic and cultural circulation but also and rather as models The book includes 21 chapters a series of poems and an Afterword from both senior and junior scholars in American Studies Archaeology Biology Cartography Digital Mapping Environmental Studies Ethnomusicology Geography History Politics Comparative Literary and Cultural Studies and Sociology who engage with Archipelago studies Archipelagic Studies has become a framework with a robust intellectual genealogy The particular strength of this handbook is the diversity of fields and theoretical approaches in the Humanities Social Sciences and Natural Sciences that the included essays engage with There is an editor's introduction in which they meditate about the specific contributions of the archipelagic framework in interdisciplinary analyses of multi focal and transnational socio political and cultural context and in which they establish a dialogue between archipelagic thinking and network theory assemblages systems theory or the study of islands oceans and constellations The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modernist Archives Jamie Callison,Matthew Feldman,Anna Svendsen,Erik Tonning,2024-06-13 Providing a broad definitive account of how the archival turn in humanities scholarship has shaped modernist studies this book also functions as an ongoing practitioner's toolkit including useful bibliographical resources and a guide to avenues for future work Archival work in modernist studies has revolutionised the discipline in the past two decades fuelled by innovative and ambitious scholarly editing projects and a growing interest in fresh types of archival sources and evidence that can re contextualise modernist writing Several theoretical trends have prompted this development including the focus on compositional process within genetic manuscript studies the emphasis on book history little magazines and wider publishing contexts and the emphasis on new material evidence and global and non canonical authors and networks within the New Modernist Studies This book provides a guide to the variety of new archival research that will point to fresh avenues and connect the methodologies and resources being developed across modernist studies Offering a variety of single author case studies on recent archival developments and editing projects including Samuel Beckett Hart Crane H D James Joyce Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf it also offers a range of thematic essays that examine an array of underused sources as well as the challenges facing archival researchers of modernism

Archipelagic American Studies Brian Russell Roberts, Michelle Ann Stephens, 2017-05-18 Departing from conventional narratives of the United States and the Americas as fundamentally continental spaces the contributors to Archipelagic American Studies theorize America as constituted by and accountable to an assemblage of interconnected islands archipelagoes shorelines continents seas and oceans They trace these planet spanning archipelagic connections in essays on topics ranging from Indigenous sovereignty to the work of douard Glissant from Philippine call centers to US militarization in the Caribbean and from the great Pacific garbage patch to enduring overlaps between US imperialism and a colonial Mexican archipelago Shaking loose the straitjacket of continental exceptionalism that hinders and permeates Americanist scholarship Archipelagic American Studies asserts a more relevant and dynamic approach for thinking about the geographic cultural and political claims of the United States within broader notions of America Contributors Birte Blascheck J Michael Dash Paul Giles Susan Gillman Matthew Pratt Guterl Hsinya Huang Allan Punzalan Isaac Joseph Keith Yolanda Mart nez San Miguel Brandy N lani McDougall Ifeoma Kiddoe Nwankwo Craig Santos Perez Brian Russell Roberts John Carlos Rowe Cherene Sherrard Johnson Ram n E Soto Crespo Michelle Ann Stephens Elaine Stratford Etsuko Taketani Alice Te Punga Somerville Teresia Teaiwa Lanny Thompson Nicole A Waligora Davis

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Women in Contemporary British Theatre Marissia Fragkou, Rebecca Benzie, 2025-02-06 This handbook provides a detailed exploration of the rich and diverse theatrical work produced by women in the first two decades of 21st century British theatre The book explores key issues and methodologies relevant to women working in the UK s theatre industry including the legacies of feminism and its role in shaping contemporary work by women the politics of visibility and inclusion in theatrical institutions and collaborative strategies in creating original work It closely examines how women in contemporary British theatre tackle urgent social issues such as environmental risk the representation of marginalized identities and mental and physical wellbeing Chapters by both established and early career scholars from a variety of international contexts present new perspectives on significant questions and issues underpinning women s work in 21st century British theatre by engaging with contemporary debates from theatre and performance studies and cultural theory A concluding roundtable with women theatre practitioners addresses key questions pertaining to their work including working conditions the politics of funding and of ageing disability and care With a foreword by the Guardian s chief theatre critic Arifa Akbar and featuring research tools such as introductions to sections a detailed list of sources and an annotated bibliography this is an authoritative study for anyone with a keen research interest in the distinct contribution of women to contemporary British theatre and performance
