Advancing Human Assessment Randy E.

Bennett, Matthias von Davier, 2017-10-17 This book is open access under a CC BY NC 2.5 license. This book describes the extensive contributions made toward the advancement of human assessment by scientists from one of the world's leading research institutions Educational Testing Service. The book's four major sections detail research and development in measurement and statistics education policy analysis and evaluation scientific psychology and validity. Many of the developments presented have become de facto standards in educational and psychological measurement including item response theory IRT linking and equating differential item functioning DIF and educational surveys like the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP the Programme of international Student Assessment PISA the Progress of International Reading Literacy Study PIRLS and the Trends in Mathematics and Science Study TIMSS. In addition to its comprehensive coverage of contributions to the theory and methodology of educational and psychological measurement and statistics the book gives significant attention to ETS work in cognitive personality developmental and social psychology and to education policy analysis and program evaluation. The chapter authors are long standing experts who provide broad coverage and thoughtful insights that build upon decades of experience in research and best practices for measurement evaluation scientific psychology and education policy analysis. Opening with a chapter on the genesis of ETS and closing with a synthesis of the enormously diverse set of contributions made over its 70 year history the book is a useful resource for all interested in the improvement of human assessment
