The Sighting Patricia Anthony, 2020-01-07 Resources in Education , 1987-10 The Anthony Summers Collection
Anthony Summers, 2018-04-10 Marilyn JFK Hoover Three provocative works of investigative journalism by a New York Times bestselling author and finalist for the Pulitzer Prize New York Times bestselling author Anthony Summers was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in 2012 for his acclaimed account of the 9 11 attacks The Eleventh Day In these three exposés Summers uncovers the truth behind the myth making cover ups and lies surrounding the death of Marilyn Monroe the assassination of John F Kennedy and the career of infamous FBI director J Edgar Hoover Goddess In this remarkable New York Times bestselling biography of the iconic star's brief life and tragic end Summers establishes after years of rumors that President Kennedy and his brother Robert were both intimately involved with Monroe in life and in covering up the circumstances of her death The New York Times Convincing evidence of a crude but effective cover up which was designed to protect Robert Kennedy The Times Literary Supplement Not in Your Lifetime Updated fifty years after the JFK assassination Summers's extensively researched account is comprehensive and candid shedding new light on Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby in particular providing the closest we have to that literary chimera a definitive work on the events in Dallas The Boston Globe Fresh and important We rush on through Summers's narrative as if we were reading an artful thriller The New York Times An awesome work with the power of a plea as from Zola for justice Los Angeles Times Official and Confidential This enthralling New York Times bestselling portrait of J Edgar Hoover plumbs the depths of a man who possessed and abused enormous power as the director of the FBI for fifty years persecuting political enemies blackmailing politicians and living his own surprising secret life haunted by paranoia Paul Theroux An important book that should give us all pause especially policy makers The Philadelphia Inquirer Summers book is not just a history of a single hero sized hypocrite it is a history of a vast national delusion The Spectator Racial/Ethnic Equity and School Safety Anthony A. Peguero, Patricia Campie, Maury Nation, 2025-06-20 This book highlights the intimate connection between racial ethnic equity and school and community safety the consequences of current inequities and establishes the way forward in terms of future research policy and practice School safety has taken on increased urgency as the United States educational systems families and students grapple with the residual effects of a public health pandemic that kept students out of classrooms and away from critical supportive services It is increasingly important to center the investigation understanding and policy implementations that highlight the correlates root causes and consequences of racial ethnic inequality in the pursuit of school safety This book addresses a range of aspects impacting racial ethnic equity and school safety all of which is being shaped by a growing population of diverse youth The chapters in this volume touch on family schools neighborhoods and communities however common to all of these chapters is an understanding of the challenges barriers consequences and importance of connecting minoritized students to provide opportunities and protection Thus each of these chapters takes care to identify points for intervention suggestions for policy and promising directions for future research Each study featured in this book stands out for its original and noteworthy contribution to the literature on the significance of race ethnicity in regard to school safety research Future research should further expand our understanding of equity school safety and justice for one of the fastest growing segments of the population racial ethnic minority youth The growing number of racial ethnic minority youth present both a challenge and an opportunity for increasingly diverse societies communities and schools This book was originally published as a special issue of Journal of School Violence Choice, 1992 The International Directory of National Archives Patricia C. Franks, Anthony Bernier, 2018-08-10 National Archives store materials relating to the history of a nation usually operated by the government of that nation This is the first ever comprehensive source of information about national archives around the world covers the national archives of all 195 countries recognized by the United Nations the 193 member states and the 2 that non member observer states The Holy See and the State of Palestine as well as Taiwan Republic of China Of the 196 countries 54 are in Africa 49 in Asia 44 in Europe 33 in Latin America and the Caribbean 14 in Oceania and 2 in Northern America All countries maintain a repository for government and historical records whether all allow public access will be determined through research for this work The National Archives of all 196 countries will be included in this work see Appendix A Each entry contains general information about the archive and when it is open to researchers if applicable historical information about the institution and how it developed information about the archives today its mission functions organization services and a description of its physical and digital infrastructures and a current focus section spotlighting one part of the collection's holdings Patricia Anthony Evans Wellons Gallery, 1954 Silent Women Kevin Brownlow, Shelley Stamp, Bryony Dixon, Karen Day, Maria Giese, Tania Field, Francesca Stephens, Ellen Cheshire, K. Charlie Oughton, Patricia di Risio, Pieter Aquila, Julie K Allen, Aimee Dixon Anthony, 2017-01-10 The first ever overview of women's contributions to the dawn of cinema looking at a variety of roles from writers and directors to film editors and critics Why have women such as Alice Guy Blache the creator of narrative cinema been written out of film history Why have so many women working behind the scenes in film been rendered invisible and silent for so long Silent Women pioneers of cinema explores the incredible contribution of women at the dawn of cinema when surprisingly more women were employed across the board in the film industry than they are now It also looks at how women helped to shape the content style of acting and development of the movie business in their roles as actors writers editors cinematographers directors and producers In addition we describe how women engaged with and influenced the development of cinema in their roles as audience critics fans reviewers journalists and the arbiters of morality in films And finally we ask when the current discrimination and male domination of the industry will give way to allow more women access to the top jobs In addition to its historical focus on women working in film during the silent film era the term silent also refers to the silencing and eradication of the enormous contribution that women have made to the development of the motion picture industry The surprise of the essays collected here is their sheer volume in every corner of a business apparently better able to accommodate female talent than now Danny Leigh Financial Times July 2016 It s a fascinating journey into the untold history of a largely lost era of film Greg Jameson Entertainment Focus March 2016 This book shows how women s voices were heard and helped create the golden age of silent cinema how those voices were almost eradicated by the male dominated film industry and perhaps points the way to an all inclusive future for global cinema Paul Duncan Film Historian Inspirational and informative Silent Women will challenge many people s ideas about the beginnings of film history This fascinating book roams widely across the era and the diverse achievements and voices of women in the film industry These are the stories of pioneers trailblazers and collaborators hugely enjoyable to read and vitally important to publish Pamela Hutchinson Silent London Every page begs the question how on earth did these amazing women vanish from history in the first place I defy anyone interested in cinema history not to find this valuable compendium a must read It s also a call to arms for more research into women s contribution and an affirmation of just how rewarding the detective work can be Laraine Porter Co Artistic Director of British Silent Film Festival An authoritative and illuminating work it also lends a pervasive voice to the argument that discrimination and not talent is the barrier to so few women occupying the most prominent roles within the industry Jason Wood Author and Visiting Professor at MMU I was amazed to discover just how crucially they were involved from not just in front of the camera but in producing directing editing and much much more An essential read Neil McGlone The Criterion Collection Swiss Democracy W. Linder,2010-04-20 An updated 3rd edition of this authoritative analysis of Swiss democracy the institutions of federalism and consensus democracy through political power sharing Linder analyzes the scope and limits of citizens participation in direct democracy which distinguishes Switzerland from most parliamentary systems Atlantic Canadian Imprints Patricia Lockhart Fleming,1991-12-15 The first comprehensive analytical bibliography of Atlantic Canadian imprints this volume covers some 320 books pamphlets broadsides government publications and serials Most have not been listed before in any bibliography or catalogue They represent the holdings of more than thirty libraries and archives in the four Atlantic provinces and in Ontario Quebec the United States and England Each entry follows the principles of descriptive bibliography and includes full collation contents record of paper type and binding analysis of issue and state and location of every copy examined Historical notes deal with authorship printing publishing distribution and sales and with the content of important works and the relationship between items Arrangement is by province then by year of publication The material catalogued encompasses a wide range of subjects God and government are two of the most common but there are many others education municipal organization history elections transportation agriculture legal trials and a number of societies benevolent national religious and masonic There are also many almanacs including one in German several satires and addresses in verse and a French ab c daire Not surprisingly in a nineteenth century Maritime bibliography signal books and decisions about piracy abound Six indexes provide access by author title genre trades place of publication and language Patricia Fleming s work continues Marie Tremaine's A Bibliography of Canadian Imprints 1751-1800 and supplements that work with new and previously unlocated imprints. It adds an essential element to our understanding of print communication in Atlantic Canada.
