Book And Ethnic Conflicts Global Interventions Maureen:

Assaulted Personhood Craig C. Malbon, 2020-12-14 In 21st century America personhood is under daily assault sometimes with dire consequences Scientist ethicist and ordained minister Craig C Malbon encourages the reader to consider such assaults on personhood endured by victims of abortion ageism Alzheimer s disease drug addiction mental and physical disabilities gender gender orientation racism sexual preference identity politics and our will to power over the other In exploring personhood status Malbon poses difficult questions for us Is personhood assigned as all or nothing or is it a sliding scale based upon criteria arbitrarily aimed at our vulnerabilities Does the voiceless embryo and fetus have advocates who can speak to the moral question of abortion Is the personhood of an economically insecure pregnant woman degraded to the point where lack of access to early termination of pregnancy results in coercive childbearing Does being a member of the LGBTQI community target one for assaults on personhood to the extreme of being killed In delving into the biology and psychology of assaults of self upon the other Malbon sees powerful linkages of everyday assaults on personhood to darker profound original sins that are foundational to the rise of the American empire i e assaults on the indigenous Native Americans and assaults derivative to the institution of slavery upon Africans African Americans and their descendants

Ethnic Conflicts and Global Interventions Maureen Wells, 2015 Over the past three decades or more the international community has been forced to negotiate agreements aimed at solving global problems of greater complexity than ever before experienced In the first chapter the authors make an argument for a specific interpretation of the role of technology as a value laden and ideologically based means by which technology disseminates instrumental values and roles to nations governments organizations groups and individuals The second chapter focuses on spatial consequences of inter ethnic conflicts The third chapter examines research conducted in the Mazowe and Shamva districts on post independence conflict resolution using taboos as a model The commentary that follows describes some of the pragmatic mechanisms used amongst the international community to maximize consensus regarding standards of behavior in international affairs The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames

the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts

Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Maureen Flaherty, 2012-08-09 Twenty years post independence Ukraine remains split still floundering toward viable democracy Active participation in civic affairs required for democracy is unfamiliar for most Ukrainian citizens having internalized centuries of divisive oppression under a series of authoritarian regimes Democracy building and peace building require participant agency and voice rising out of oppression people often need support to speak about and transform their lived experiences Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Using Narrative to Envision a Common Future by Maureen P Flaherty explores the roles women s shared narrative dialogue and group visioning play in the support of personal empowerment and bridge building between diverse communities Despite participants initial beliefs that their regional counterparts shared little in common with them in the process of telling their personal life stories women were able to reflect upon their own values and strengths and with this rooting they were then able to reach out to others Rather than looking for differences participants sought ways to express a shared vision for an inclusive functional peace building future for themselves their families and Ukraine as a whole Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine is a model for emancipatory social action and social change while the women s stories offer a window into the formative years and present day lives of eighteen women born and raised in the Soviet Union This study is a unique contribution to peace studies and to the history and building of a country that has most often had its history written for it

Between Development and Destruction Kumar Rupesinghe, Paul Sciarone, Luc van de Goor, 2016-07-27 Much has already been written about the effects of the changes of the Cold War on conflict The ongoing disengagement of East and West from bipolar Cold War politics has resulted in an unstable international political situation which is characterized by regional conflicts Most analyses now concentrate on the consequences for Europe and the former communist Central and East European states This book however explores the effects for the Third World The contributors provide major theoretical analyses of the causes of conflict in developing countries Four main factors are distinguished the processes of state formation and nation building the rise or return of ethnicity and nationalism socio economic factors and the armaments conflict nexus The volume also provides in depth regional analyses as well as policy perspectives on the issue of conflict and development

The War Next Door Judy Large, 1997 The War Next Door is based on participative field research in Serbia Croatia Eastern Slavonia and Bosnia between 1992 and 1996 Based on practical experiences interviews personal testimony and analysis it addresses the impact of second track interventions Particular emphasis is placed on local strategies for preventing the escalation of violence building a capacity for peace amid a structure conducive to war the transition from new social movements to NGO formations tensions between the therapeutic and direct action approaches to conflict resolution and dilemmas in training and engagement such as the facilitation versus empowerment debate Includes illustrations cartoons

Accounting Reform in Transition and Developing Economies
 Robert W. McGee, 2008-11-16 Much has been written about the economic and political problems of countries that are in the process of changing from centrally planned systems to market systems Most studies have focused on the economic legal political and sociological problems these economies have had to face during the transition period However not much has been written about the dramatic changes that have to be made to the accounting and financial system of a transition economy This book was written to help fill that gap Accounting Reform in Transition and Developing Economies is the fourth in a series to examine accounting and financial system reform in transition and developing economies The first volume used Russia as a case study The second volume in the series examined some additional aspects of the reform in Russia and also looked at the accounting and financial system reform efforts that are being made in Ukraine Bosnia Herzegovina Armenia Eastern Europe and Central Asia The third volume examined taxation and public finance in transition and developing economies

Peace on Earth Thomas Matyók, Maureen Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusso, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2013-12-16 Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies provides a critical analysis of faith and religious institutions in peacebuilding practice and pedagogy The work captures the synergistic relationships among faith traditions and how multiple approaches to conflict transformation and peacebuilding result in a creative process that has the potential to achieve a more detailed view of peace on earth containing breadth as well as depth Library and bookstore shelves are filled with critiques of the negative impacts of religion in conflict scenarios Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies offers an alternate view that suggests religious organizations play a more complex role in conflict than a simply negative one Faith based organizations and their workers are often found on the frontlines of conflict throughout the world conducting conflict management and resolution activities as well as advancing peacebuilding initiatives

Confronting Ethnic Conflict
 Jennifer L. De Maio, 2009-01-01 Confronting Ethnic Conflict critically assesses the role of external intervention in managing selected ethnic conflicts in Africa Given the pervasive threat of ethnic conflict and the growing incidence of internal wars spilling across borders understanding the impact of third party intervention on conflict prevention durable peaceful governance and amicable social relations becomes a critical exercise for any scholar of conflict management The purpose of this project is to determine whether intervention strategies undertaken by international regional and subregional actors can be devised or improved so as to maximize the likelihood of successful conflict management in the case of internal conflicts particularly ethnic conflicts As the literature and empirical evidence suggest third party intervention does not always prevent or end violence De Maio contends that external involvement is more likely to lead to effective conflict management if it works to alter the perceptions of the antagonists and ensures that the parties truly own the peace This book focuses on four cases in detail the Somali crisis from 1988 to 1992 the Burundi conflict from 1995 to 2003 the protracted conflict in Sudan from 1983 to 2005 and the 1994 KwaZulu Natal civil conflict in South Africa The cases were selected because their varying outcomes and different types of third party involvement suggest that insights can be gained into the conditions that determine successful third party intervention Democratic Governance and Non-State Actors A. Gardner, 2011-02-14 This book investigates whether international standards of good governance are applied to sub state actors as well as to states By examining the international response to self determination claims this project demonstrates that the international community does indeed hold sub state groups accountable to such standards
