The Psychological Effects of Immigrating Robert Tyminski,2022-09-09 Exploring immigration from psychological historical clinical and mythical perspectives this book considers the varied and complex answers to questions of why people immigrate to entirely new places and leave behind their familiar surroundings and culture Using research reviews extensive case material and literary examples such as Virgil s The Aeneid Robert Tyminski s work will deepen readers understanding of what is both unique and universal about migratory experiences He addresses the negative consequences of xenophobia the acculturation experiences of children compared to adults the trauma and psychological issues that arise when seeking refuge or relocating to a new country and the more recent implications of COVID 19 upon border crossings Tyminski also re evaluates the term identity as a psychological shorthand suggesting that it can flatten our understanding of human complexity and erase migrant and refugee life stories and differences As one of few books to investigate immigration from a Jungian oriented perspective Robert Tyminski s work offers a new and broad perspective on the mental health issues related to immigration This book will prove essential for clinicians working with refugees and migrants when in training and in practice as well as students and practitioners of psychoanalysis seeking to deepen their understanding of migratory experiences

The War on History Jarrett Stepman,2019-10-01 The War on Our History Confederate memorials toppled Columbus statues attacked with red paint They started with slave owning Confederate generals but they re not stopping there The vandals are only pretending to care about the character of particular American heroes In reality they hate what those heroes represent the truths asserted in the Declaration of Independence and embodied in the Constitution And they are bent on taking America down and replacing our free society with a socialist utopia All that stands in their way is Americans reverence for our history of freedom Which is why that history simply has to go Now Jarrett Stepman editor at The Daily Signal and host of Right Side of History exposes the true aims of the war on our history The war on America World history is full of conquests and suffering indigenous peoples Why target Christopher Columbus What they really want to tear down is America The war on Thanksgiving World history is full of colonists Why target the Pilgrims What they really want to tear down is American freedom and prosperity The war on the Founding World history is full of slavery Why target Thomas Jefferson What they really want to tear down are the rights endowed by our Creator The war on the common man World history is full of victorious generals and populist politicians Why target Andrew Jackson What they really want to tear down is democracy The war on the South World history is full of civil strife Why target Confederate heroes like Robert E Lee What they really want to tear down is respect for America s past and the reconciliation that renewed our Union The war on patriotism World history is full of national pride Why target Teddy Roosevelt What they really want to tear down is the idea of American greatness The war on the American century World history is full of bloody wars What they really want to tear down is America s defeat of totalitarianism If America is to survive this assault we must rally to the defense of our illustrious history The War on History is the battle plan

Mission Manifest Matthew K. Shannon,2024-06-15 In Mission Manifest Matthew Shannon argues that American evangelicals were central to American Iranian relations during the decades leading up to the 1979 revolution These Presbyterian missionaries and other Americans with ideals worked with US government officials nongovernmental organizations and their Iranian counterparts as cultural and political brokers the living sinews of a binational relationship during the Second World War and early Cold War As US global hegemony peaked between the 1940s and the 1960s the religious authority of the Presbyterian Mission merged with the material power of the American state to infuse US foreign relations with the messianic ideals of Christian evangelicalism In Tehran the missions of American evangelicals became manifest in the realms of religion development programs international education and cultural associations Americans who lived in Iran also returned to the United States to inform the growth of the national security state higher education and evangelical culture The literal and figurative missions of American evangelicals in late Pahlavi Iran had consequences for the binational relationship the global evangelical movement and individual Americans and Iranians Mission Manifest offers a history of living breathing people who shared personal professional and political aims in Iran at the height of American global power
