Breaking Spears Culture Crossroads Modernity:

The Breaking Spears Paul Kunoni, 2015-12-23 The story is about Paul's life in Kenya and how his tradition and family background shaped his resolve to acquire modern education. He takes the reader through the various stages of formal education in tandem with Maasai rites of passages that he went through. He describes how colonization influenced education in his country and how it continues to influence wealth distribution and politics. The author is from the Maasai a pastoralist community who have been able to maintain their culture and traditions despite the pressure exerted on their lifestyle by modernization. He gives a detailed account of the struggle experienced by his culture's gradual transformation in order to conform to the new world order. Traditionally it was considered sunrise was the beginning of a day yet in this formal world a day begins at midnight and ends at the same time. The author illustrates how a father saw an eminent change of his people's culture and what he did to prepare his children for it. As the author was educated his boundaries expanded and revealed experiences that touched about family ethnicity Nationality and to some degree race.

Slapstick Modernism William Solomon, 2016-06-15 Slapstick comedy landed like a pie in the face of twentieth century culture. Pratfalls percolated alongside literary modernism throughout the 1920s and 1930s before slapstick found explosive expression in postwar literature experimental film and popular music. William Solomon charts the origins and evolution of what he calls slapstick modernism a merging of artistic experimentation with the socially disruptive lunacy made by the likes of Charlie Chaplin. Romping through texts films and theory Solomon embarks on an intellectual odyssey from the high modernism of Dos Passos and Williams to the late modernism of the Beats and Burroughs before a head on crash into the raw power of punk rock. Throughout he shows the links between the experimental writers and silent screen performers of the early century and explores the potent cultural undertaking that drew inspiration from anarchical comedy after World War II.

Being and Becoming Ukpokolo, Chinyere, 2016-02-27 This book illuminates the complex and constantly shifting social and cultural dynamics that shape people's identity. Specifically the volume focuses on the intersections of gender with culture and identity and at different historical epochs on the way men and women define themselves and are defined by diverse peoples and cultures across time and space in sub-Saharan Africa. The discussions presented in this anthology primarily focus on being as a state or condition defined by sex identity and how this identity shifts and hence becoming assuming diverse meanings in disparate societies contexts and time. The discourse therefore moves from how the perception of the self in cultural and historical contexts has informed actions and at some other times shaped interpretations given to historical facts to how changing economic realities also shape the definitions and constructions of social and relational issues in Sub-Saharan Africa. The historical trajectories of Islamic religion colonialism and Christian missionary activities in sub Saharan Africa have shaped the worlds of the peoples of the region and impacted on gender relations Artbibliographies Modern ,1995 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Minerva ,2006 The Advocate ,2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Alternative Press Index ,2003
