Bereavement Counseling A Multidisciplinary Handbook:

Bereavement Counseling B. Mark Schoenberg, 1980-06-04 Product information not available Bereavement and Health Wolfgang Stroebe, Margaret S. Stroebe, 1987-09-25 Does the popular notion of a broken heart have some grounding in reality How can grief affect the body in ways that necessitate medical care and may even be life threatening Bereavement and Health constitutes a comprehensive review of what is known about the impact of bereavement on surviving partners Drawing on the work of psychologists sociologists epidemiologists and psychiatrists Wolfgang and Margaret Stroebe offer a theoretically coherent perspective focused on conjugal loss After a thorough discussion of stress and depression models of bereavement the authors present their own theoretical approach emphasizing social contacts and the interpersonal nature of grief They then examine the psychological and medical consequences of bereavement Are the bereaved at higher risk than those who have not lost a partner What has research revealed about the causes symptoms and outcomes of grief Key questions about recovery from grief are also addressed Is the health risk of bereavement severe enough to have lasting or even fatal consequences Is it possible to identify those bereaved who are at high risk before their health suffers What are the strategies that are most likely to lead to effective coping Can attempts at intervention be effective The Stroebe's combination of theoretical integration and methodological rigor will make Bereavement and Health a standard text for years to come

Social Support: Theory, Research and Applications I.G. Sarason, 2013-11-11 No one is rich enough to do without a neighbor Traditional Danish Proverb This bit of Danish folk wisdom expresses an idea underlying much of the current thinking about social support While the clinical literature has for a long time recognized the deleterious effects of unwholesome social relationships only more recently has the focus broadened to include the positive side of social interaction those interpersonal ties that are desired rewarding and protective This book contains theoretical and research contributions by a group of scholars who are charting this side of the social spectrum Evidence is increasing that maladaptive ways of thinking and behaving occur disproportionately among people with few social supports Rather than sapping self reliance strong ties with others particularly family members seem to encourage it Reliance on others and self reliance are not only compatible but complementary to one another While the mechanism by which an intimate relationship is protective has yet to be worked out the following factors seem to be involved intimacy social integration through shared concerns reassurance of worth the opportunity to be nurtured by others a sense of reliable alliance and guidance The major advance that is taking place in the literature on social support is that reliance is being placed less on anecdotal and clinical evidence and more on empirical inquiry The chapters of this book reflect this important development and identify the frontiers that are currently being explored CANCER AND THE FAMILY CAREGIVER Ora Gilbar, Hasida Ben-Zur, 2002-01-01 This book is the product of the authors research and clinical practice in the field of psycho oncology stress and coping for a period of over twenty years It fills a gap that exists in the discussion of caregiver distress felt by both cancer researchers and psycho oncologists in the vital area of predicting acknowledging and alleviating the distress of caregivers of cancer patients and it focuses on the caregivers of cancer patients in various phases of the illness The discussion of cancer patient caregivers is divided into three aspects theoretical Part 1 research Part 2 and practical Part 3 issues The analysis of these areas can be useful to clinicians researchers medical psychological social workers and nurses by familiarizing them with the spectrum of stresses experienced by cancer patients and their caregivers and the coping methods that have proven most effective Part One presents theoretical background on the structure and progression of the caregiver role and how caregivers cope with the illness as explored in recent literature Part Two presents empirical research on caregiver psychological distress carried out by the authors during 1993 1999 Part Three examines two important issues The first is intervention for reducing caregiver distress and the second issue is the ethical question of caregiver involvement in the patient s medical decisions The book is timely as it is felt that the issue at hand will have mounting importance and relevance to our society as it experiences growing longevity and concomitant challenges in cancer caregiving

Perspectives on Loss and Trauma John H. Harvey, 2002
Written by a key founder in the field of loss and trauma this is the first book to bring together the twin fields of loss and trauma It reviews theory and research on a sampling of loss and trauma phenomena that include losses due to the death of close others divorce and dissolution losses due to disease processes and injuries losses due to unemployment and homelessness war and violence and the Holocaust and genocide discusses relevant therapy approaches and emphasizes a story telling approach to coping with major loss contains scores of stories of persons confronting stress and of the courage displayed by so many in the face of profound loss in their personal lives includes consideration of cross cultural international perspectives on loss exploring both universal and individual characteristics of different groups

Friendgrief Harold Ivan Smith, 2018-09-17 This book not only examines friendgrief from a theoretical and clinical framework but also Smith offers fascinating vignettes from the lives of well known friendgrievors such as Elton John Diane Sawyer Ralph Abernathy C S Lewis Harry Truman Tommy Lasorda Jimmy Carter Fritz Mondale Bill Clinton Calvin Trillin and Alan King The author includes moving narratives of numerous individuals who have never gained notoriety but have become seasoned friendgrievors

Death and the Quest for Meaning Stephen Strack, Herman Feifel, 1997 Essays in tribute to pioneering researcher Herman Feifel cover all aspects of thanatology the study of death and dying and the care of the dying and bereaved Topics include the role of the caregiver the process of grief religious and spiritual perspectives how children cope with death and assisted death Of interest to social workers nurses psychotherapists physicians clergy and educators Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill
