Meeting the Buddhas Vessantara, 2022-12-05 Meeting the Buddhas is a modern classic giving a vivid and accessible introduction to all the main figures meditated on in the Indo Tibetan Buddhist tradition First published in 1993 this new edition incorporates a section on Vajrak la as well as new images and hundreds of small changes that nuance and deepen earlier editions It is a mine of information for those who want to learn about buddhas bodhisattvas and tantric deities and of inspiration for those who are already doing the practices Vessantara powerfully evokes the figures giving the reader a real feeling for what it's like to meditate on them and how they can transform us on a deep level It gives detailed descriptions of the figures including their mudras and symbolic emblems so it can be used as a handy reference to identify and learn about particular images

Women, Subalterns, and Ecologies in South and Southeast Asian Women's Fiction Chitra Sankaran, 2021-11-01 In recent decades East Asia has gained prominence and has become synonymous with Asia while other Asian regions such as South and Southeast Asia have been subsumed under it The resultant overgeneralization has meant that significant aspects of the global ecological crisis as they affect these two regions have been overlooked Chitra Sankaran refocuses the global lens on these two rapidly developing regions of Asia Combining South Asian and Southeast Asian philosophical views and folk perspectives with mainstream ecocritical and ecofeminist theories she generates a localized critical idiom that qualifies and subverts some established theoretical assumptions This pioneering study introducing a corpus of more than thirty ecofictions by women writers from twelve countries in South and Southeast Asia examines how recent global threats to ecosystems in both nature and culture impact subdominant groups including women This new corpus reveals how women and subalterns engage with various aspects of critical ecologies Using ecofeminist theory augmented by postcolonial and risk theories as the main theoretical framework Sankaran argues that these women writers present unique perspectives that review Asian women s relationships to human and nonhuman worlds Zen Lessons Dahui,2004-04-20 Zen Lessons The Art of Leadership is a guide to enlightened conduct for people in positions of authority Based on the teachings of several great Chinese Zen masters it delves into the complexities of Zen literature during a time when societal pressures demanded a nuanced approach to spiritual practice Drawing on their wisdom through private records letters and long lost documents readers are introduced to the intricate dynamics of leadership integrity and the communal responsibilities inherent in Zen The book s short accessible excerpts emphasize the importance of integrity self awareness and compassion The teachings reveal the necessity of cultivating genuine connections within a community guiding practitioners toward a harmonious and enlightened existence With its rich tapestry of anecdotes and historical context the book provides a timeless exploration of how Zen principles can navigate the complexities of human relationships and foster a harmonious society For those seeking a deeper understanding of leadership and personal growth this book offers a compelling journey into the heart of Zen wisdom It challenges readers to reflect on their own leadership qualities and the impact they have on their communities Zen Lessons is a profound reflection on the delicate balance between tradition and adaptation in the pursuit of a meaningful life
