NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

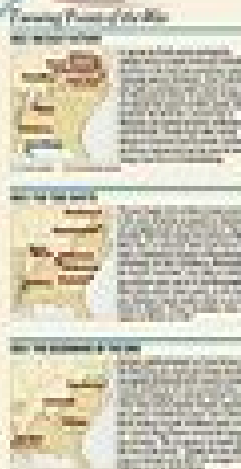

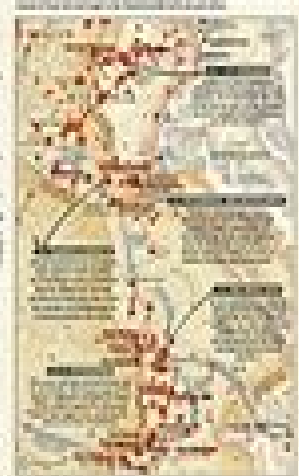

A Nation Rips Itself Apart

During the greatest year of bloodshed in American history, the United States tore itself apart. From 1861 to 1865, the nation was divided into two warring factions: the Union, which sought to preserve the Union, and the Confederacy, which sought to secede. The war was fought over the issue of slavery, which was the central cause of the conflict. The Union ultimately won the war, but the cost was high, with over 600,000 soldiers and civilians killed.
