A Pastors Toolbox Management Skills For Parish Leadership:

A Pastor's Toolbox 2 Paul A. Holmes, 2017-07-03 The remarkable success of the book A Pastor's Toolbox Management Skills for Parish Leadership has demonstrated that the demands of time and financial challenges continue to impact the work of today's parish leaders. The need has become even greater for practical tools to assist in the many aspects of temporal administration, leadership, and church management. This follow-up volume provides all new information, insights, and practical tools that pastors need to handle the complexities of parish management in the twenty-first century. Sixteen contributors from across the country deliver key content that focuses on promoting excellence and best practices in the areas of management, finances, communications, and human resources development. A Pastor's Toolbox 2 provides leadership tools for the pastor and his team, help for working with the parish's pastoral and finance councils, intercultural competence, and complex pastoring situations. Suggestions for time management and effective meetings, human resources change management, and canon law tools for parish stewardship, communications, and Catholic schools. The book is an outgrowth of the Toolbox for Pastoral Management, a nationally recognized joint project of Leadership Roundtable and Seton Hall University. A Seminarian's Toolbox Patrick Stokely, 2024-02-15 With the ever-increasing demands placed on our parish leaders, what can seminaries do to prepare priests to deal with the difficult issues they will face? In addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care, future pastors require lasting support as they discern the call to priesthood and prepare to enter parish leadership after ordination. Filled with valuable information for supporting seminarians in their ongoing formation, A Seminarian's Toolbox provides practical tools and guidance for achieving best practices in parish leadership. This book is a project of The Leadership Roundtable, a nonprofit organization of Catholic lay leaders, religious, and clergy working together to promote best practices in the formation of clergy and lay leaders in the United States Learn more at www.LeadershipRoundtable.org Cross-Cultural Leadership Training Leonard U. Ahanotu PhD EdD, 2020-10-29 The issue of cross cultural movements of professionals within organizations in the 21st century's network style of the global organization has created the question of how to prepare professionals to meet the demands of satisfactory service in a culture different from their home culture The absence of the cross cultural preparation of the professionals is causing cross cultural maladjustments among many professionals and the Nigerian Catholic priests who move from Nigeria to the United States face this reality Given the shortage of priests in the United States the U S Roman Catholic Church recruits many priests from overseas and a significant number of these priests are being recruited from Nigeria whose culture is very different from the U S culture The work of these well educated priests helps to solve the priest shortage problem but is creating new challenges in some Catholic parishes because of cultural differences The priests continually face cross cultural challenges to succeed in their pastoral work There is little research on the cross cultural challenges and other experiences of these priests in adjustment and in carrying out their duties This qualitative study investigated the cross cultural experiences of Nigerian priests serving in the United States Interviews with some Nigerian priests serving in the four different geographical regions of the United States yielded important discoveries that comprised of some common challenges and some common strategies to facilitate adjustment The findings indicated that a cross cultural preparation before arrival to the United States could reduce the cross cultural maladjustments and its effects on the pastoral works of these awesome priests The discoveries influenced the recommendation of Kolb's Learning Theory to design a pre departure cross cultural training for Nigerian priests The study offers an invaluable contribution to the tools that will help expatriates for cross cultural adjustment and intercultural relations when they work in a foreign environment
