Race and the Greening of Atlanta Christopher C. Sellers, 2023-08-15 Race and the Greening of Atlanta turns an environmental lens on Atlanta's ascent to thriving capital of the Sunbelt over the twentieth century. Uniquely wide ranging in scale from the city's variegated neighborhoods up to its place in regional and national political economies, this book reinterprets the fall of Jim Crow as a democratization born of two metropolitan movements: a well-known one for civil rights and a lesser-known one on behalf of the environment. Arising out of Atlanta's Black and white middle classes respectively, both movements owed much to New Deal capitalism's undermining of concentrated wealth and power, if not racial segregation in the Jim Crow South. Placing these two movements on the same historical page, Christopher C. Sellers spotlights those environmental inequities, ideals, and provocations that catalyzed their divergent political projects. He then follows the intermittent, sometimes vital alliances they struck as civil rights activists tackled poverty as a new environmental state arose and as Black politicians began winning elections. Into the 1980s, as a wealth-concentrating style of capitalism returned to the city and Atlanta became a national poster child for sprawl, the seedbeds spread both for a national environmental justice movement and for an influential new style of antistatism. Sellers contends that this new conservatism, sweeping the South with an anti-environmentalism and budding white nationalism that echoed the region's Jim Crow past, once again challenged the democracy Atlantans had achieved.

Factory Man Beth Macy, 2014-07-15 The instant New York Times bestseller about one man's battle to save hundreds of jobs by demonstrating the greatness of American business. The Bassett Furniture Company was once the world's biggest wood furniture manufacturer. Run by the same powerful Virginia family for generations, it was also the center of life in Bassett, Virginia. But beginning in the 1980s, the first waves of Asian competition hit, and ultimately Bassett was forced to send its production overseas. One man fought back: John Bassett III, a shrewd and determined third-generation factory man, now chairman of Vaughan Bassett Furniture Co., which employs more than 700 Virginians and has sales of more than 90 million. In Factory Man, Beth Macy brings to life Bassett's deeply personal furniture and family story along with a host of characters from an industry that was as cutthroat as it was colorful. As she shows how he uses legal maneuvers, factory efficiencies, and sheer grit and cunning to save hundreds of jobs, she also reveals the truth about modern industry in America.

The Stillness of the Living Forest John Harvey, 2018-11-13 It started with a personal commitment to sit an hour each week for a full year in the same spot in the woods. John Harvey's intention was to reconnect with nature and observe the flow of natural life through the four seasons. As Harvey settled into his weekly routine of visiting his sit spot and fully engaging his senses, rich and illuminating experiences began to unfold. His encounters with nature included seeing and listening to a plethora of birds, from tiny wrens to large hawks, from sweet singing warblers to rattling woodpeckers, enjoying the sight of seasonal plants such as wild violets, trout lily, and skunk cabbage, sitting out in the open during weather events that ranged from glorious warm summer sunshine to an Alberta clipper in the winter and spotting the occasional deer and even a black bear In all cases Harvey sought to observe listen appreciate and learn Learn he did about the birds animals plants and trees that surrounded and intrigued him But his remarkable encounters with nature also facilitated self discovery fostered insight and nurtured empathy and intuition

Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R. Shirinian,2024-10-11 In Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R Shirinian traces two widespread rhetorics of perversion sexual and moral in postsocialist Armenia showing how they are tied to anxieties about the nation s survival In her fieldwork with Armenians Shirinian found that right wing nationalists focus on sexual perversion centers the figure of the homosexual while questions of moral perversion surround oligarchs and other members of the political economic elite While the homosexual is seen as non or improperly reproductive the oligarch s moral deviations from the caring and paternalistic expectations associated with national leadership also endanger Armenia s survival Shirinian shows how both figures threaten the nation s proper social reproduction a source of great anxiety for a nation whose primary point of identity is surviving genocide In the existential threat posed by these forms of perversion Shirinian finds paths where nonsurvival might mean the creation of futures that are queerer and more just Detailing how the language of perversion offers trenchant critiques of capitalism as a perversion of life Shirinian presents a new queer theory of political economy
