Accountable Talk For Kindergarten:

Interactive Read Aloud with Accountable Talk in Kindergarten Janet Isabelle McDowell, 2007 After noticing that many students rely on the same few to answer the teacher's questions I wanted to increase student participation through interactive read aloud experiences by having them talk with a partner and as a whole group Some of the many sources that influenced my thinking included Douglas Barnes Lucy Calkins Brian Cambourne Mem Fox and Kathryn Mitchell Pierce Within my Kindergarten class I gave each child a partner I then taught a speaking or listening skill that was then applied as I read a story and paused to illicit conversations The results showed an increase in the physical conversational and content of their discussions with a partner However when it came to applying those skills in a whole group setting many of their social skills disappeared
