Chapter 1 A Framework for Financial Accounting

REVIEW QUESTIONS

Question 1-1 (LO 1-1)

Accounting is the language of business. Whereas a basic math class might involve adding, subtracting, and solving for unknown variables, accounting involves learning to measure business transactions and communicating those measurements in a format that is generally understood by decision makers.

Question 1-2 (LO 1-1)

Those interested in making decisions about a company include investors, creditors, customers, suppliers, managers, employees, competitors, regulators, tax authorities, and local communities.

Question 1-3 (LO 1-1)

Financial accounting seeks to measure business activities of a company and to communicate those measurements to external parties for decision-making purposes. The two primary external, or outside the firm, users of financial accounting information are investors and creditors. Managerial accounting deals with the methods accountants use to provide information to an organization's internal users, that is, its own managers.

Question 1-4 (LO 1-1)

The two primary functions of financial accounting are to measure business activities of a company and to communicate information about those activities to investors and creditors for decision-making purposes.

Question 1-5 (LO 1-2)

The three basic business activities are financing, investing, and operating activities. Financing activities are transactions that raise cash needed to operate the business, such as issuing stock and borrowing money from a bank. Investing activities typically include the purchase or disposal of long-term resources that are expected to benefit the company for

Accounting, Chapters 1-23 Charles T. Horngren,1995-07 The Demo Docs System of instruction replicates the classroom experience by providing more I get it moments outside of class We ve talked to tons of POA instructors and our editors have even taken the accounting course numerous times to figure out the following issue in this course that is consistent Students understand or get it right after you do a problem in class but as soon as they leave class with each passing hour their ability to do the problems again and complete their homework diminishes to the point of them either having to come to office hours to get help or they just quit and get behind in the course On top of this you can end up getting behind in the course as well in order to keep everyone on track The Demo Docs system helps to recreate the I get it moments outside of class keeping both you and the students on track
