Among Malay Pirates A Tale of Adventure and Peril G. A. Henry, 2017-08-08 In this collection of shorter stories we visit Malay pirates have a couple of tales of India a shipwreck off the Channel Islands and a bursting dam in California and finish off escaping from captivity in China AMONG MALAY PIRATES excerpt I wish most heartily that something would happen Harry Parkhurst a midshipman of some sixteen years of age said to his chum Dick Balderson as they leaned on the rail of her majesty s gunboat Serpent and looked gloomily at the turbid stream that rolled past the ship as she lay at anchor One day is just like another one is in a state of perspiration from morning till night and from night till morning There seems to be always a mist upon the water and if it were not that we get up steam every three or four days and run out for twenty four hours for a breath of fresh air I believe that we should be all eaten up with fever in no time Of course they are always talking of Malay pirates up the river kicking up a row but it never seems to come off Among Malay Pirates: a Tale of Adventure and Peril and Other Tales G. A. Henty, 2014-06-19 This collection of literature attempts to compile many of the classic timeless works that have stood the test of time and offer them at a reduced affordable price in an attractive volume so that everyone can enjoy them Among Malay Pirates George Alfred Henty, 1808 Among Malay Pirates; A Tale of Adventure and Peril, and Other Tales G. A. Henty, 2023-07-09 Reproduction of the original Among Malay Pirates: A Tale of Adventure and Peril George Alfred Henty, 1910-01-01 I wish most heartily that something would happen Harry Parkhurst a midshipman of some sixteen years of age said to his chum Dick Balderson as they leaned on the rail of her majesty s gunboat Serpent and looked gloomily at the turbid stream that rolled past the ship as she lay at anchor One day is just like another one is in a state of perspiration from morning till night and from night till morning There seems to be always a mist upon the water and if it were not that we get up steam every three or four days and run out for twenty four hours for a breath of fresh air I believe that we should be all eaten up with fever in no time Of course they are always talking of Malay pirates up the river kicking up a row but it never seems to come off There is one thing Harry there is always something to look at for there are canoes constantly going up and down and there is plenty of variety among them from the sluggish dhows laden with up country produce to the long canoes with a score of paddlers and some picturesque ruffian sitting in the stern It adds to the interest when you know that the crews are cutthroats to a man and would make but the shortest possible work of you if they had got you in their power Yes Dick Look at that canoe coming up stream what a good looking chap that is in the stern though by the way he scowls at us I can quite believe he would as you say cut our throats if he had the chance That is a pretty little child sitting by him and what a gorgeous dress she has There you see he can look pleasant enough when he speaks to her I fancy they must have come from a long way up the river for they look wilder than most of the fellows who pass us If that fool who is steering her does not mind what he is about Dick he will either run into that canoe coming down or else get across our chain There I told you so The man at the tiller was in fact looking with mingled curiosity and hostility at the gunboat that he was passing but a few yards away and did not notice a canoe manned by six rowers that was coming down with the stream taking an oblique course across the bows of the Serpent and was indeed hidden from his view by the hull of the vessel until he had passed beyond her Then there was a sudden shout and a yell from a dozen throats as the two canoes came into collision the one proceeding up the river being struck on the quarter with a force that almost cut her in two and in an instant her occupants were in the water As the Malays were to a man almost as much at home in the water as on land the accident would have had little effect beyond the loss of the boat and its contents had it not been that the stern of the other craft struck the Malay chief with such force as to completely disable him and he would have sunk at once had not two of the boatmen grasped him and kept his head above water What has become of the child Harry Parkhurst exclaimed and he and Dick Balderson both leaped on to the rail throwing off their jackets as they shouted to the men to lower a boat Nothing could be seen of the child until after half a minute s suspense a little face suddenly appeared in the swirl of the muddy water some fifteen yards from the vessel s side It was gone again in an instant but as it disappeared both lads sprang from the side and with a few strokes reached the spot where they had seen the face disappear then they dived under water and soon grasped her As soon as they came to the surface a sailor who had seized a coil of rope flung it to them and grasping it they were quickly by the side of the gunboat
