Apocalypse The For Our Times:

Visions of the End Times Laura Duhan-Kaplan, Anne-Marie Ellithorpe, Harry O. Maier, 2022-11-11 Global challenges fill the news today It s not always easy to balance fear with hope That s why this book points to resources for optimism and action A diverse group of scholars draw on Jewish Christian Islamic and M ori traditions to describe challenges and hopes They recognize the ruptures of militarism trauma colonialism religious nationalism climate change and more But they also describe the healing power of communal action spiritual practices biblical literature and the arts Apocalypse John R. Hall, 2013-05-02 Winner of the American Sociological Association s Distinguished Book Award in the Religion category For most of us Apocalypse suggests the cataclysmic end of the world Yet in Greek apocalypse means revelation and the real subject of the Book of Revelation is how the sacred arises in history at a moment of crisis and destiny With origins in ancient religions the apocalyptic has been a transformative force from the time of the Crusades through the Reformation the French Revolution and modern communism all the way to the present day Islamic Jihad and War on Terror In Apocalypse John R Hall explores the significance of apocalyptic movements and the role they have played in the rise of the West and The Empire of Modernity This brilliant cross disciplinary study offers a novel basis for rethinking our social order and its ambivalent relations to sacred history Apocalypse will attract general readers seeking new understandings of the world in challenging times Scholars and students will find a compelling synthesis that draws them into conversation with others interested in religion theology culture philosophy and phenomenology as well as sociology social theory western civilization and world history

Defining the Church for Our Time Peter Schmiechen, 2012-06-12 The church is broken and we cannot fix it Faith in God is disconnected from churches Mainline churches are deeply divided and their budgets and congregations have diminished with no agreement for recovery So what shall we do It is time to stop talking about the problems and to consider a new vision of the church for our time This book is a celebration of the church as the community of new life in Christ It assumes Christ intended to create a community on earth embodying grace and holiness It begins with a new and inclusive definition of the church as a community enduring in time It affirms the great variety of churches all as valid expressions of the new life and explains how and why churches are formed in different ways The goal is for churches to celebrate the saving power of Christ and to see the glory of God revealed in the world in our time Ethics for Apocalyptic Times Daniel Shank Cruz, 2023-10-30 Ethics for Apocalyptic Times is about the role literature can play in helping readers cope with our present day crises including the COVID 19 pandemic climate change and the shift toward fascism in global politics Using the lens of Mennonite literature and their own personal experience as a culturally Mennonite queer Latinx person Daniel Shank Cruz investigates the age old question of what literature s role in society should be and argues that when we read literature theapoetically we can glean a relational ethic that teaches us how to act in our difficult times In this book Cruz theorizes theapoetics a feminist reading strategy that reveals the Divine via literature based on lived experiences and extends the concept to show how it is queer decolonial and equally applicable to secular and religious discourse Cruz's analysis focuses on Mennonite literature including Sofia Samatar's short story collection Tender and Miriam Toew's novel Women Talking but also examines a non-Mennonite text Samuel R Delany's novel The Mad Man alongside practices of haiku and tarot to show how reading theapoetically is transferable to other literary traditions Weaving together close reading and personal narrative this pathbreaking book makes a significant and original contribution to the field of Mennonite literary studies Cruz's arguments will also be appreciated by literary scholars interested in queer theory and the role of literature in society

Uncovering Possible: Pedagogies for Apocalyptic Times Cara Berg Powers, Nastasia Lawton-Sticklor, 2025-09-02

Uncovering Possible: Pedagogies for Apocalyptic Times is an edited volume that holds our experiences as educators activists and community members navigating the global pandemic of the past several years This pandemic is situated within the context of ongoing interconnected crises oppressive systems worsening climate and economic urgency all at an unsustainable pace The work in this volume confronts the grief loss and injustice that apocalypse brings while also engaging with the possibility and intentional resilient joy necessary to build a better world This volume is an invitation to explore both the impacts of this and many other apocalyptic events in learning spaces as well as re-imagine what's essential to learning in community Through research storytelling reflections from the field poetry and interactive activities this volume shares lessons from those on the front lines of apocalyptic learning inviting the reader to find their place in building the more equitable communities we need and deserve This apocalypse is situated within a social context that extends beyond this single event For many apocalypse has and continues to happen through colonial white supremacist capitalism What we carry forward must include the collective knowledges capable of carrying us not just through this apocalypse but the apocalypses ahead

Epic Ambitions in Modern Times Robert Crossley, 2022-08-16 Epic Ambitions in Modern Times explores how artists in varied genres and media have aimed for in Milton's phrase things unattempted yet in epic creation Starting with the last books of Paradise Lost as a farewell to the ancient tradition of epic and extending to an assessment of four twenty-first century women writers retelling canonical epics in the voices of marginalized characters the book's intervening chapters consider epic in the forms of an epistolary novel a work of history a poetic autobiography an opera a silent film a series of paintings two literary fantasies three poems set in the future and a play

Apocalypse of Truth Jean Vioulac, 2021-05-03 We inhabit a time of crisis totalitarianism environmental collapse and the unquestioned rule of neoliberal capitalism Philosopher Jean Vioulac is invested in and worried by all of this but his main concern lies with how these phenomena all represent a crisis within and a threat to thinking itself In his first book to be translated into English Vioulac radicalizes Heidegger's understanding of truth as disclosure through the notion of truth as apocalypse This apocalypse of truth works as an unveiling that reveals both the finitude and mystery of truth allowing a full confrontation with truth as absence Engaging with Heidegger Marx and St Paul as well as contemporary figures including Giorgio Agamben Alain Badiou and Slavoj Žižek

Vioulac's book presents a subtle masterful exposition of his analysis before culminating in a powerful vision of the abyss of the deity. Here Vioulac articulates a portrait of Christianity as a religion of mourning waiting for a god who has already passed by a form of ever present eschatology whose end has always already taken place. With a preface by Jean-Luc Marion, Apocalypse of Truth presents a major contemporary French thinker to English speaking audiences for the first time. After the Apocalypse Srećko Horvat, 2021-02-11 In this post-apocalyptic rollercoaster ride, philosopher Srećko Horvat invites us to explore the Apocalypse in terms of revelation rather than as the end itself. He argues that the only way to prevent the end is extinction is to engage in a close reading of various interconnected threats such as climate crisis, the nuclear age, and the ongoing pandemic. Drawing on the work of neglected philosopher Günther Anders, this book outlines a philosophical approach to deal with what Horvat, borrowing a term from climate science and giving it a theological twist, calls eschatological tipping points. These are no longer just the nuclear age or climate crisis but their collision conjoined with various other major threats: not only pandemics but also the viruses of capitalism and fascism. In his investigation of the future of places such as Chernobyl, the Mediterranean, and the Marshall Islands, as well as many others affected by COVID-19, Horvat contends that the revelation appears simple and unprecedented; the alternatives are no longer socialism or barbarism; our only alternatives today are a radical reinvention of the world or mass extinction. After the Apocalypse is an urgent call not only to mourn tomorrow's dead today but to struggle for our future while we can. New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare James Newlin, James W. Stone, 2023-07-14 It has been over two decades since the publication of the last major edited collection focused on psychoanalysis and early modern culture. In Shakespeare studies, the New Historicism and cognitive psychology have hindered a dynamic conversation engaging depth-oriented models of the mind from taking place. The essays in New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare, Cool Reason and Seething Brains, seek to redress this situation by engaging a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic theory and criticism from Freud to the present to read individual plays closely. These essays show how psychoanalytic theory helps us to rethink the plays' history of performance, their treatment of gender, sexuality, and race, their view of history and trauma, and the ways in which they anticipate contemporary psychodynamic treatment. Far from simply calling for a conventional return to Freud, the essays collected here initiate an exciting conversation between Shakespeare studies and psychoanalysis in the hopes of radically transforming both disciplines. It is time to listen once again to seething brains. Apocalypse Revisited: A Critical Study on End Times Melis Mulazimoglu Erkal, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2015. Mankind's fascination with the Apocalypse is not new. Starting from the Hindu notions of Kali Yuga to 2012 Phenomenon, the Apocalypse has been a part of our lives in the form of a cultural formation, natural threat, fictional entity, ideological construct, political fear, or catastrophic end. Apocalyptic discourses underline how one culture perceives and reflects pain, trauma, loss, and fear, as well as indicating the ability to face and get ready for disaster. This interdisciplinary and academic study aims to discuss the end of the world in multiple contexts where the popularity of apocalypse always reigns In the scope of this work readers will see the multi dimensional nature of the Apocalypse referring more to progress rather than end or beginning an in between situation a becoming a formation local yet global phenomenon a product of fantasy plus a constructed reality both an object of consumption and life consuming mechanism an ideological presence in the absence of larger meta narratives
