A Place-Based Perspective of Food in Society Kevin M. Fitzpatrick, Don Willis, 2015-08-18 This book provides an outstanding collection of interdisciplinary and international essays examining the food place relationship It explores such topics as the history of food and agriculture the globalization and localization of food and the role of place in defining the broader societal consequences of this ever changing phenomena Talking about Food Sofia Rüdiger, Susanne Mühleisen, 2020-06-15 All humans eat and all humans speak activities which in social life often but not always co occur We talk while eating and drinking with others but food is also a prominent literal and metaphorical discursive topic which contributes to establishing communities and identities This omnipresence of eating and drinking in our daily lives has led to a public fascination with foodways The contributions in this edited collection investigate the connection between language and food from a variety of perspectives As food discourses operate on local global and mediated levels they are intertwined with notions of identity and culture and thus shed light on intimate understandings of ourselves as human beings Talking about Food The Social and the Global in Eating Communities provides up to date and thought provoking contributions to the linguistics of food The book is essential reading for anyone interested in food related subjects Feeding New Orleans Jeanne K. Firth, 2023-11-15 After Hurricane Katrina in 2005 many high profile chefs in New Orleans pledged to help their city rebound from the flooding Several formed their own charitable organizations including the John Besh Foundation to help revitalize the region and its restaurant scene A year and a half after the disaster when the total number of open restaurants eclipsed the pre Katrina count it was embraced as a sign that the city itself had survived and these chefs arguably became the de facto heroes of the city s recovery Meanwhile food justice organizations tried to tap into the city s legendary food culture to fundraise marketing high end dining events that centered these celebrity chefs Jeanne K Firth documents the growth of celebrity humanitarianism viewing the phenomenon through the lens of feminist ethnography to understand how elite philanthropy is raced classed and gendered Firth finds that cultures of sexism in the restaurant industry also infuse chef led philanthropic initiatives As she examines this particular flavor of elite celebrity based philanthropy Firth illuminates the troubled relationships between consumerism food justice movements and public private partnerships in development and humanitarian aid Food for the Future John Brueggemann, 2023-07-03 Food for the Future Stories from the Alternative Agro food Movement is about different foods the stories they contain and most of all the people in the stories John Brueggemann interviewed dozens of farmers chefs non profit managers consumers teachers and healthcare providers He argues that their individual stories point towards larger patterns that have shaped the alternative agro food movement and that other factors including the environmental movement farms lifestyle movements and consumers have all played a crucial role in its rise The author concludes that the alternative agro food movement is providing a countervailing force relative to mainstream market culture and that instead of efficiency profit consumption individualism and short term thinking the
