Spaces of Geographical Thought Paul J. Cloke, Ron Johnston, Ronald John Johnston, 2005-02-16 Examining key ideas like space and place which inform the geographic imagination this text discusses the core conceptual vocabulary of human geography

Association Men , 1917 Producing Masculinity Michele White, 2019-02-08 Thoughtful witty and illuminating in this book Michele White explores the ways normative masculinity is associated with computers and the Internet and is a commonly enacted online gender practice Through close readings and a series of case studies that range from wedding forums to men s makeup video tutorials White considers the ways masculinities are structured through people s collaborations and contestations over the establishment of empowered positions including debates about such key terms and positions as the nice guy nerd bro and groom She asserts that cultural notions of masculinity are reliant on figurations of women and femininity and explores cultural conceptions of masculinity and the association of normative white heterosexual masculinity with men and women A counterpart to her earlier book Producing Women White has crafted an excellent primer for scholars of gender media and Internet studies Material masculinities Ben Jackson, 2025-04-08 Material

Masculinities examines the material and consumer practices of over 1000 men from the middling and upper ranks of eighteenth century society c 1650 1850 It draws upon evidence from over 35 archives and museum collections to detail how material objects were integral for men in forming identities and shaping experiences For men of all social ranks ages and geographic locations material knowledge was imperative for masculine social identities to operate in a commercial society Before the centralised factory and widespread mass produced goods men personalised and repaired their goods products were shaped by men s attitudes and concerns Objects were tools in men s identity formation and the exercise of social and gendered power There was a reciprocal relationship between men and goods in this period men were active agents of material and commercial change driving product and aesthetic innovation Myths of Masculinity William G. Doty, 1993 A redefinition of gender and of masculinity and femininity which may liberate men and women from constrictions imposed by dominant past models From Labouring to Learning Michael R.M. Ward, 2016-04-29 Highly Commended in the Society of Educational Studies Book Prize This book explores how economic changes and the growing importance of educational qualifications in a shrinking labour market particularly effects marginalized young men It follows a group of young working class men in a de industrial community and challenges commonly held representations that often appear in the media and in policy discourses which portray them as feckless out of control educational failures and lacking aspiration Ward argues that for a group of young men in a community of social and economic deprivation expectations and transitions to adulthood are framed through the industrial legacy of geographically and historically shaped class and gender codes These codes have an impact on what it means to be a man and what behaviour is deemed acceptable and what is not
