decided to take Anna under her wing Maggie was a pillar in the beachside community and she knew everyone and everything that went on A twist of fate and a little help from Maggie led Anna to a run down beach caf which like herself needed rebuilding What Anna didn't expect was who this little caf would bring into her life or the person from her past who would come back to haunt her and the adventures she would have along the way Maggie's Forty Acres Gregory N

Richardson,2019-04-12 A dying Maggie fills the last days of her life by telling her life story to her sister and care giver Alice Both women lived most of their lives as single women in the young American West The adventure for both began in 1883 when their family moved from the home of generations of their family in Sackville NB Canada to the raw West outside Custer South Dakota Territory This dramatically altered life opportunities for both women From a one room school in Custer Maggie blossomed into the best educated of her family Her older brothers cowboys in the raw land north of the Missouri believed in her so much they paid her tuition at Hastings College Nebraska South Dakota then paid for her next three years of college at Spearfish Normal College After five years of teaching in Custer Maggie returned to college in Chicago to study not the facts to be taught but the most effective means to teach the young She emerged an Educational Specialist working for struggling new schools in the West Growing up with Parents who have Learning Difficulties Tim Booth,Wendy

Booth,2005-08-10 Growing up with Parents who have Learning Difficulties uses a life story approach to present new evidence about how children from such families manage the transition to adulthood and about the longer term outcomes of such an upbringing It offers a view of parental competence as a social attribute rather than an individual skill assessing the implications for institutional policies and practices The authors address the notion of children having to parent their disabled parents and argue for a shift in emphasis from protecting children to supporting families This innovative book provides a fresh approach to a subject rife with prejudice and challenges us to think again about many taken for granted ideas about the process of parenting and the needs of children It also demonstrates the power of narrative research and its capacity for bringing alive people's experience in a way that enables us to better understand their lives A New Beginning David A
