conscience An out of the ordinary coming of age story covering fifty years In that time a forever loner who came to well understand who he was Hunter and hunted Rich Man's Revenge - 3 Book Box Set Jennie Lucas,Katherine Garbera,2016-03-01 Dealing Her Final Card Jennie Lucas Bree Dalton nervously accepts the biggest wager of her life The bet comes from the man whose ring she once wore and life she once ruined Russian Prince Vladimir Xendzov Her body for a million dollars Bree knows better than to doubt the steely ruthlessness of this man With everything to lose and the weight of Vladimir s gaze upon her she will have to play the best she s ever played or run the risk of losing herself completely Only the most innocent touch can melt their ice cold hearts Seducing His Opposition Katherine Garbera All business all the time had made Justin Stern a very confirmed bachelor Yet one glance at Selena Gonzalez and he knew changes were in order Perhaps marriage wasn t in his future but an affair certainly was Never mind that he and Selena were on opposite sides of a deal that could make or break them both Pretty soon passion was the top priority And if Justin could finesse their white hot attraction into a win for his company he would no matter what the cost A Reputation For Revenge Jennie Lucas Josie Dalton s heart pounds in her chest as she approaches the imposing penthouse of formidable Russian prince Kasimir Xendzov She might have agreed to marry him to save her sister but the icy glitter in Kasimir s unflinching eyes warns that he s not a man to be toyed with The final piece of the puzzle has fallen into place and revenge is at Kasimir s fingertips the champagne s on ice and his new wife waits in the bedroom victory has never been sweeter But Josie s purity tests the one thing Kasimir didn t know he had honour The Psychology of Strategy Kenneth Payne,2015-05-15 How do strategists decide what they wish to achieve through war and how they might accomplish it And why does their understanding of violence regularly turn out to be wrong In seeking answers to these questions Kenneth Payne draws on the study of psychology to examine strategic behaviour during the Vietnam War He explores the ways in which cognitive biases distort our sense of our own agency and our decision making arguing that much of the latter is emotional shaped by unconscious processing and driven by a prickly concern for social esteem The Nixon and Johnson administrations both proved susceptible to the processes that are familiar to students of modern neuroscience and psychology but perhaps less appreciated within strategic studies US strategists in the Vietnam era miscalculated in ways that would surprise rational theorists but not evolutionary psychologists they exaggerated the stakes embraced risky and overly optimistic solutions and failed to appreciate the limits of force to shatter the enemy s resolve Their concern for reputation led to escalation based on a flawed conception of what such escalation could achieve The Vietnam conflict provides an excellent illustration that war is an inherently psychological phenomenon This challenges abstract notions of rationality in strategic affairs suggesting that the strategists much like the rest of us are strangers to themselves Routledge Handbook of Character Assassination and Reputation Management Sergei A. Samoilenko,Martijn Icks,Jennifer Keohane,Eric Shiraev,2019-12-05 In modern politics as well as in historical times character attacks abound Words and images like symbolic and psychological weapons have sullied or destroyed numerous reputations

People mobilize significant material and psychological resources to defend themselves against such attacks How does character assassination work and when does it not Why do many targets fall so easily when they are under character attack How can one prevent attacks and defend against them The Routledge Handbook of Character Assassination and Reputation Management offers the first comprehensive examination of character assassination Moving beyond studying corporate reputation management and how public figures enact and maintain their reputation this lively volume offers a framework and cases to help understand critically analyze and effectively defend against such attacks Written by an international and interdisciplinary team of experts the book begins with a theoretical introduction and extensive description of the five pillars of character assassination 1 the attacker 2 the target 3 the media 4 the public and 5 the context The remaining chapters present engaging case studies suitable for class discussion These include Roman emperors Reformation propaganda the Founding Fathers defamation in US politics women politicians autocratic regimes European leaders celebrities nations Internet campaigns This handbook will prove invaluable to undergraduate and postgraduate students in communication political science history sociology and psychology departments It will also help researchers become independent critical and informed thinkers capable of avoiding the pressure and manipulations of the media

Evolution and Popular Narrative

,2019-06-07 The contributors to this volume share the assumption that popular narrative when viewed with an evolutionary lens offers an incisive index into human nature In theory narrative art could take a near infinity of possible forms In actual practice however particular motifs plot patterns stereotypical figures and artistic devices persistently resurface indicating specific predilections frequently at odds with our actual living conditions Our studies explore various media and genres to gauge the impact of our evolutionary inheritance in interdependence with the respective cultural environments on our aesthetic appreciation As they suggest research into mass culture is not only indispensable for evolutionary criticism but may also contribute to our understanding of prehistoric selection pressures that still influence modern preferences in popular narrative Contributions by David Andrews James Carney Mathias Clasen Brett Cooke Tam s D vid Barrett Tom Dolack Kathryn Duncan Isabel Behncke Izquierdo Joe Keener Alex C Parrish Todd K Platts Anna Rotkirch Judith P Saunders Michelle Scalise Sugiyama Dirk Vanderbeke and Sophia Wege

Social Psychology of Punishment of Crime Margit E.

Oswald,Steffen Bieneck,Jorg Hupfeld-Heinemann,2015-06-15 In recent years research interest has increased both in the needs of punishment by the public and in the psychological processes underlying decisions on sentencing This comprehensive look at the social psychology of punishment focuses on recent advances and presents new findings based on the authors own empirical research Chapters explore the application of social psychology and social cognitive theories to decision making in the context of punishments by judges and the punitiveness of laymen The book also highlights the different legal systems in the UK US and Europe discussing how attitudes to punishment can change in the context of cultural and social development
