Wadell, 2016-05-20 Happiness and the Christian Moral Life introduces students to Christian ethics through the lens of happiness The book suggests that the heart of ethics is not rules and obligations but our deep desire for happiness and fulfillment We achieve that happiness when we become people who love the good and seek it in everything we do The third edition of this reader friendly text has been revised and updated throughout It introduces Christian ethics with sensitivity towards readers who may not be Christian themselves After an overview of basic concepts and key thinkers such as Augustine and Thomas Aquinas subsequent chapters explore the importance of narrative in Christian ethics the place of

Eschenauer, Harold Daly Horell, 2011 A Michael Glazier book Includes bibliographical references and index The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story
