A Negro Explorer at the North Pole - French Matthew Henson,2010-12-12 Matthew Henson A Negro Explorer at the North Pole Matthew Alexander Matthew Alexander Henson,2013-07-25 One of the first questions which Commander Peary was asked when he returned home from his long patient and finally successful struggle to reach the Pole was how it came about that beside the four Esquimos Matt Henson a Negro was the only man to whom was accorded the honor of accompanying him on the final dash to the goal The question was suggested no doubt by the thought that it was but natural that the positions of greatest responsibility and honor on such an expedition would as a matter of course fall to the white men of the party rather than to a Negro To this question however Commander Peary replied in substance Matthew A Henson my Negro assistant has been with me in one capacity or another since my second trip to Nicaragua in 1887 I have taken him on each and all of my expeditions except the first and also without exception on each of my farthest sledge trips This position I have given him primarily because of his adaptability and fitness for the work and secondly on account of his loyalty He is a better dog driver and can handle a sledge better than any man living except some of the best Esquimo hunters themselves

Matthew Henson Laura Baskes Litwin,2001 Examines the life of African American explorer Matthew Henson who placed the American flag at the North Pole in 1909 but was never credited for this because of racial prejudice
