New Apostolic Reformation? R. Douglas Geivett, Holly Pivec, 2018-07-25 This critique provides a framework for understanding and interpreting the widespread but little known New Apostolic Reformation NAR movement As the authors state in the preface We write this book with two major goals in mind First to give people an idea of the sheer size and reach of the NAR movement And second to systematize its key teachings and practices and evaluate them on the basis of Scripture and careful reasoning In our judgment the NAR perspective crosses these boundaries that is certain broad parameters revealed in Scripture and practiced in the historical orthodox church and it does so in part because of flawed theology rooted in a flawed understanding of Scripture We wish to warn readers about a possible confusion Some critics have linked the NAR movement with mainstream Pentecostalism and charismatics We do not do this In fact it is our contention that the NAR movement deviates from classical Pentecostal and charismatic teachings This movement has emerged out of independent charismatic churches and thus has gained a foothold in many of those churches in varying degrees

Third Wave Pentecostalism in the Philippines Lora Angeline Embudo Timenia, 2021-11-28 With this book Lora Timenia provides the Pentecostal Charismatic movement with critically needed tools and wise counsel for evaluating unusual spiritual experiences and phenomena Her sympathetic yet critical analysis of four influential proponents of the Toronto Blessing revivalism in the Philippines is marked by careful research informed analysis and a pastoral heart Timenia's detailed research and insightful evaluation is communicated in clear language and marked by an irenic spirit Her ability to instruct and her desire to edify shines through on virtually every page The result is a book that not only offers valuable counsel for the burgeoning charismatic churches of the Philippines but one that also provides much needed pastoral perspective for the global Pentecostal movement Robert P Menzies From the Foreword This book makes a valiant effort to take up the big questions of discerning signs and wonders in the Pentecostal Third Wave ferment in the Philippines that involves multiple perspectives and contextual variables while providing insight into at least one expression of a classical Pentecostal set of theological commitments that is dynamically evolving the Philippines milieu This volume signals another much needed step in the emergence of a Pentecostal theological academy in Asia At the same time it is also a bold and expansive first book by a new author that heralds significant breakthroughs on the global scholarly horizon to mature

Amos Yong Dean of the School of Theology the School of Intercultural Studies Fuller Theological Seminary New Faces of God in Latin America Virginia Garrard, 2020 This monograph is a history of the New Apostolic Reformation, Trump, and Evangelical Politics Damon T. Berry, 2023-06-29 Whilst many assume that conservative evangelical support for Trump is motivated by his position on social issues such as abortion and LGBTQ rights or a nostalgia for an imagined American golden age this book shows that the reality is much more complex by looking at a more recent and understudied trend of Evangelicalism in America Damon T Berry examines how leaders within the New Apostolic Reformation NAR a charismatically inclined Evangelical movement claim their support for Trump came from alleged prophetic visions that compelled them to defend Trump's candidacy and to continue to defend his presidency re-election against demonically inspired Marxist Deep State enemies In this conspiratorial cosmology spiritual warfare through prayer and political activism is the duty of the faithful so that they might protect Trump as God's anointed leader and war against malevolent unpatriotic forces that oppose him the nation and God himself Working from primary source materials produced by leading figures among the NAR Berry argues that this conspiratorial discourse is central to NAR support for Trump's candidacy presidency and re-election effort and that this discourse has come to shape some of the most important debates among American religious conservatives in the 21st century Evangelical Review of Theology, Volume 47, Number 2 Thomas Schirmacher, 2023-05-09 ERT publishes quality articles and book reviews from around the world both original and reprinted from an evangelical perspective reflecting global evangelical scholarship for the purpose of discerning the obedience of faith and of relevance and importance to its international readership of theologians educators church leaders missionaries administrators and students The journal is published as a ministry rather than as a commercial project seeking to be of service to the worldwide spread of the gospel and the building up of the church and its leadership in co-ordination with the World Evangelical Alliance's broader mission and activities Reckless Christianity Douglas Geivett, Holly Pivec, 2025-03-27 Bethel Church California is one of the most popular and polarising churches in America With its own Christian music label reports of miraculous healings and the manifestation of a glittering Glory cloud the congregation of Bethel Church is ever growing Bethel Church situates itself in the global movement of the New Apostolic Reformation believing that present day apostles and prophets must govern the church Some praise the church for the clear manifestation of God's activity others see the integration of controversial and hazardous practices into the church In Reckless Christianity Holly Pivec and R Douglas Geivett provide meticulous research and an incisive critique of the Bethel movement Citing its charismatic senior leader Bill Johnson as promoting a reckless Christianity Pivec and Geivett return to Scripture the authoritative Word of God to provide guidance on the boundaries of practice and where these boundaries are crossed In its pursuit of experimentation Reckless Christianity argues that the leaders of Bethel are pulling its followers into a dangerously speculative and experience-driven Faith Pentecostal Theological Education in the Majority World, Volume 1 Dave Johnson, Rick Wadholm Jr., 2023-03-23

There remains a considerable gap in discussion of Pentecostal theological education in and by the Majority World This volume seeks to fill that gap and offer ways for such conversations to progress among educators and institutions globally Theological education may be conceived in broad terms as inclusive of discipleship within the local church for instance yet the phrase is used in this volume regarding formal engagement within higher education that is specifically focused on theological development and discipleship within the academic disciplines This volume takes up an initial foray into the narrow approach in seeking to address those persons institutions and organizational bodies concerned with the graduate post graduate levels of theological education with the intent of a following volume more specific to the undergraduate bachelor s and certificate levels of higher education The further intent is to include a third volume on non formal theological education which is critical for the continuance of the global Pentecostal Charismatic revival The collection of essays included in this volume represent a diverse authorship globally as seeking to address pertinent issues of Pentecostal theological education in the Majority World The opening contributions by Gary Munson Vee J Doyle Davidson and Amos Yong offer introductory observations and underlying theological and socio cultural underpinnings for better engaging Pentecostal theological education in the Majority World Dave Johnson and Josfin Raj each carry the conversation into areas of advancing research engagement and maturation that may be imported local or globalized and make good use of the tools available in each context The three chapters by Daniel Topf Peter White and Jeremiah Campbell provide histories and prospective futures in several Majority World contexts across regions of Africa and Latin America A volume such as this would be remiss to not have a contribution speaking to the role of the Holy Spirit in theological education Temesgan Kahsay provides just such an essay that seeks to consider ways in which the Spirit has and ought to be more directly engaged through the educational processes The volume is rounded out by the chapter of Dean D O Keefe and Jacqueline N Grey that provides some biblical theological reflections drawn from the exilic and post exilic texts of the Old Testament as bases for reflecting upon Pentecostal practices in conversation with Scripture

Counterfeit Kingdom Holly Pivec,R. Douglas Geivett,2022-11-15 Is there a new reformation happening in the church It depends on who you ask The New Apostolic Reformation NAR is a popular and fast growing new movement of Christians who emphasize signs and wonders and teach that God is giving new revelation through new apostles and prophets But is this biblical Christianity In Counterfeit Kingdom apologists and NAR experts Holly Pivec and Douglas Geivett show how the NAR s key tenets distort the gospel twist the Scriptures are influenced by New Age practices and lead faithful Christians to shipwreck their faith They also offer practical suggestions for readers who are already influenced by the NAR curious about it or concerned about loved ones who have been swept up in the movement What used to be on the fringes of the church is now mainstream and many are being influenced by it unaware This book is a wake up call there remains a great deal of confusion about the nature of the gifts and how they best function in the body of Christ In this comprehensive guide to the spiritual gifts Storms addresses the many bizarre and misleading interpretations while confronting the tendency to downplay the urgency of spiritual gifts for Christian living and ministry He explains how spiritual gifts both the more miraculous and the everyday are given to build up the body of Christ God has graciously provided these manifestations of the Spirit so that believers might encourage edify strengthen instruct and console one another all with a view to an ever increasing incremental transformation into the image of Jesus Christ Throughout this guide Sam Storms unpacks the glorious truth that there is a supernatural and divine energy or power that fills and indwells the body and soul of every Christian believer Understanding Spiritual Gifts is useful as a reference to address common questions about the gifts but it also serves as a training manual for using and exercising the gifts in ministry It is perfect for any individual or group who wants to grow in their understanding of spiritual gifts for today
