A New Housing Policy For America Recapturing The American Dream:

A New Housing Policy for America David C. Schwartz, Richard C. Ferlauto, Daniel N. Hoffman, 1988 This book proposes a comprehensive innovative and largely self financing plan to meet America s housing needs in the 1990s Showing how current housing policies and housing needs are diametrically opposed the authors analyze more than two hundred new state national and international housing efforts to derive a plan that will meet the challenge of U S housing and demographic trends in the 1990s Projecting the special needs of young families single parent families and low and moderate income families in the 1990s David Schwartz Richard Ferlauto and Daniel Hoffman propose new roles for non profit organizations and employers Their new plan advocates a federal down payment assistance loan program a lease purchase home buying program an employer assisted homeownership plan a mortgage interest rate buydown fund shared equity mortgages a new National Housing Investment Corporation and a Federal Housing Trust Fund to construct needed rental units In addition special programs are suggested to provide housing help to elderly people single parent families and the homeless Author note David C Schwartz is Professor of Political Science at Rutgers University and a member of the New Jersey General Assembly Richard C Ferlauto is a community organizer and legislative analyst who concentrates on housing and community economic development issues Daniel N Hoffman is a consultant on housing and urban economic development with The Atlantic Group in New Jersey Developing a National Housing Policy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Community Development, 1988 American Housing Production, 1880-2000 Mason C. Doan, 1997 American Housing Production 1880 2000 presents a concise history of nonfarm housing production progress and policy in the United States This century has been divided into a 14 part chronological structure with irregular time intervals in contrast to conventional decade time periods This arrangement is intended to reflect more fully the economic and political forces causing short run movements in housing output This book treats housing production within a broad economic demographic and political context Special relative measures of housing production mortgage debt and household formation have been developed to provide historical perspective over the period covered Strong emphasis is placed on the growth and improved quality of the housing stock and on the evolution of community facilities essential to safe and sanitary housing and of a mortgage credit system capable of supporting rising levels of production and home ownership It analyzes the uneven results of Federal housing legislation including the effort to assure equal access for all citizens to housing and mortgage markets and the unfortunate experience of the Department of Housing and Urban Development A look ahead to future prospects for housing production concludes the book Housing Policy Debate, 1991 Affordable Housing and Public Policy Chicago Assembly, 1993 Out Of Sight, Out Of Mind Yvonne Vissing, 2021-03-17 Because they re small they re easy to overlook Because their voices don t carry far it s hard to hear them We d rather not look too closely or listen too carefully And if we don t see them maybe they ll just go away But the invisible homeless cannot simply fly away to never never land or pull themselves up by their bootstraps or make a wish upon a star These homeless people are children and they are not always in the inner cities as Yvonne Vissing shows in this poignant study of families housing and poverty As many as a third of our nation s homeless are found in rural and small town America They are all too commonly out of sight and out of mind Homelessness in small towns and rural areas is on the rise Drawing on interviews with and case studies of three hundred children and their families with supporting statistics from federal state and private agencies Vissing illustrates the impact this social problem has upon education health and the economy Families vividly describe the ways they have fallen through cracks in the social structure from home ownership into homelessness Looking toward the future Vissing asks if homeless children are destined to become dysfunctional adults and provides a sixteen year old girl s moving testimony of the vagabond life her homeless family led While the economy and the very nature of the family have changed over past decades housing education and human service industries have failed to adapt Vissing provides a planning model for improving support networks within communities and challenges Americans with a fundamental philosophical question Do homeless children merit fullscale social intervention Ultimately Out of Sight Out of Mind compels us not merely to voice concerns for family and community values but also to assert this commitment consciously through improved essential services

From Chicago to L.A. Michael Dear,2001-07-31 For most of the twentieth century the principles of the Chicago School have guided urban analysts throughout the world Los Angeles has been regarded as an exception to the rules governing the growth of American cities But just as the Chicago School emerged at a time when that city was reaching new national prominence Los Angeles is now making its impression on the minds of urbanists across the world From Chicago to L A begins the task of defining an alternative agenda for urban studies and examines the case for shifting the focus of urban studies from Chicago to Los Angeles The authors experienced scholars from a variety of disciplines examine The concepts that have blocked our understanding of Southern California cities The imaginative structures that people have been using to understand and explain Los Angeles The utility of the Los Angeles School of urbanism

The Fate of Cities Roger Biles,2011 The first major comprehensive treatment of urban revitalization in 35 years Examines the federal government s relationship with urban America from the Truman through the Clinton administrations Provides a telling critique of how in the long run government turned a blind eye to the fate of cities

The Creation of a Federal Partnership Margaret M. Brassil,2010-11-03 With the ongoing recession and housing crisis it has never been more important to understand the federal and state governments roles in affordable housing The Creation of a Federal Partnership takes a fresh look at the history of national and state housing policy by examining the role played by state housing agencies since the 1970s Establishing new ground in the field this volume discusses how the relationship between the federal and state levels has evolved over time The result Margaret M Brassil argues is that the federal government s broad policy guidelines allow states to better address their own social issues an improvement for policy and ultimately for the people it serves Black Women in America Kim Marie Vaz, 1994-11-02 This stimulating volume challenges the tendency to represent African American women's experiences as a monolithic whole. The interdisciplinary approach organized around the theme of activism enables an unusual and inventive selection of topics to be presented. The history, culture, sociology, and psychology of black women are richly represented.
