A Pastors Toolbox Management Skills For Parish Leadership:

A Pastor's Toolbox 2 Paul A. Holmes, 2017-07-03 The remarkable success of the book A Pastor's Toolbox Management Skills for Parish Leadership has demonstrated that the demands of time and financial challenges continue to impact the work of today's parish leaders. The need has become even greater for practical tools to assist in the many aspects of temporal administration, leadership, and church management. This follow-up volume provides all new information, insights, and practical tools that pastors need to handle the complexities of parish management in the twenty-first century. Sixteen contributors from across the country deliver key content that focuses on promoting excellence and best practices in the areas of management, finances, communications, and human resources development. A Pastor's Toolbox 2 provides leadership tools for the pastor and his team, help for working with the parish's pastoral and finance councils, intercultural competence, and complex pastoring situations. Suggestions for time management and effective meetings, human resources change management, and canon law tools for parish stewardship, communications, and Catholic schools. The book is an outgrowth of the Toolbox for Pastoral Management, a nationally recognized joint project of Leadership Roundtable and Seton Hall University. A Seminarian's Toolbox Patrick Stokely, 2024-02-15 With the ever-increasing demands placed on our parish leaders, what can seminaries do to prepare priests to deal with the difficult issues they will face? In addition to formation in priestly spirituality and pastoral care, future pastors require lasting support as they discern the call to priesthood and prepare to enter parish leadership after ordination. Filled with valuable information for supporting seminarians in their ongoing formation, A Seminarian's Toolbox provides practical tools and guidance for achieving best practices in parish leadership. This book is a project of The Leadership Roundtable, a nonprofit organization of Catholic lay leaders, religious, and clergy working together to promote best practices in the formation of clergy and lay leaders in the United States Learn more at www.LeadershipRoundtable.org Cross-Cultural Leadership Training Leonard U. Ahanotu PhD EdD, 2020-10-29 The issue of cross cultural movements of professionals within organizations in the 21st century's network style of the global organization has created the question of how to prepare professionals to meet the demands of satisfactory service in a culture different from their home culture The absence of the cross cultural preparation of the professionals is causing cross cultural maladjustments among many professionals and the Nigerian Catholic priests who move from Nigeria to the United States face this reality Given the shortage of priests in the United States the U S Roman Catholic Church recruits many priests from overseas and a significant number of these priests are being recruited from Nigeria whose culture is very different from the U S culture The work of these well educated priests helps to solve the priest shortage problem but is creating new challenges in some Catholic parishes because of cultural differences The priests continually face cross cultural challenges to succeed in their pastoral work There is little research on the cross cultural challenges and other experiences of these priests in adjustment and in carrying out their duties This qualitative study investigated the cross cultural experiences of Nigerian priests serving in the United States Interviews with some Nigerian priests serving in the four different geographical regions of the United States yielded important discoveries that comprised of some common challenges and some common strategies to facilitate adjustment The findings indicated that a cross cultural preparation before arrival to the United States could reduce the cross cultural maladjustments and its effects on the pastoral works of these awesome priests The discoveries influenced the recommendation of Kolb's Learning Theory to design a pre departure cross cultural training for Nigerian priests The study offers an invaluable contribution to the tools that will help expatriates for cross cultural adjustment and intercultural relations when they work in a foreign environment

Institutional Intelligence

Gordon T. Smith, 2017-07-11 We tend to view institutions cynically but they are essential to human flourishing and thriving communities Focusing on the non profit sector Gordon Smith unpacks the core of institutional intelligence showing team leaders directors executives board members and employees how to work effectively within the institutional character of their organizations

Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes

Brendan Reed, 2018 Catholic institutions today are faced with the challenge of redefining themselves within a context of growing pluralisation and detraditionalisation Following the empirical work on Catholic School identity Identity in Dialogue this book attends to the institution of the parish Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes offers a theoretical framework for parish life in a new context It introduces a new diagnostic tool the Searching for Parish Engagement Scale and it proposes four models for parish life today the convinced parish the engaged parish the devoted parish and the consumerist parish Brendan Reed is a parish priest in the Archdiocese of Melbourne Australia He is adjunct lecturer at Catholic Theological College University of Divinity

Counting the Cost

Clemens Sedmak, Kelli Reagan Hickey, 2024-04-05 What difference would Catholic Social Tradition make if it guided our personal and communal financial decision making The Sermon on the Mount reminds us of this fundamental decision making when it comes to questions of faith and money No one can serve two masters for a slave will either hate the one and love the other or be devoted to the one and despise the other You cannot serve God and wealth Matthew 6 24 In Counting the Cost Clemens Sedmak and Kelli Reagan Hickey suggest a theological and spiritual discernment process for the everyday reality of budgeting and financial planning that explores the status of money and monetary values by reflecting on this gospel call Counting the Cost explains how Catholic Social Teaching provides a framework for our thinking around finances by answering questions such as What does this fundamental decision look like in times of financial scarcity and stewardship responsibilities How do the attitudes that Jesus invites us into shape the ways we make financial decisions And how can budgeting be and become a way of discipleship for individuals parishes and dioceses The book includes a range of financial decision making examples and reconstructs them as decisions about priorities values and commitments to respond to the world and its material realities in a gospel inspired way The Enacting Catholic Social Tradition series is dedicated to the systematic application of Catholic Social Teaching to real world problems and issues Written for both academics and pastoral practitioners who want to draw on and learn more about the rich resources of Catholic Social Tradition for the practical work of justice the series aims to strengthen the capacity of the church to respond lovingly and well to the demands of the gospel
