A Racing Story Dirt To Asphalt:

Dirt to Asphalt Dennis Brewster, 2008-08-27 A History of East Tennessee Auto Racing David McGee, 2014-02-11 East Tennessee isn't typically mentioned among stock car racing's formative hotbeds. But the region from Bristol to Oneida and Chattanooga encapsulates a significant portion of the sport's history. From pioneers like Brownie King and Paul Lewis of Johnson City to former national champions Joe Lee Johnson of Chattanooga and L. D. Ottinger of Newport, East Tennessee has produced many of NASCAR's great drivers. The region is home to one of the world's largest sports stadiums in the Bristol Motor Speedway, but NASCAR also made regular visits to other area tracks. Whether the surface is red clay, asphalt, or brushed concrete, East Tennessee still boasts some of the world's fastest, most competitive racing. Join author and racing insider David McGee as he presents a vast array of colorful characters whose passion fueled a sport that has gone from primitive to prime time.

more than the stereotype of cricket for the elite and football for the working class As worldwide sport continues to gain in popularity we also see parallels to many aspects visible in North American sport particularly celebrity and all its trappings and pitfalls The success of athletes from other countries in basketball and ice hockey and the proliferation of stars imported and now exported to and from North America provides some better examples of sport s international power It also creates a very new kind of sport celebrity albeit one that often shows a rather limited reach beyond that star s own country or continent Thus rather than focusing on the Western Hemisphere this collection of some of world sport s most heralded celebrities including stars of Motocross surfing distance running and more serves as a sort of passport to many places that make up our global sporting environment
