Michael Whitworth

A Room Of Ones Own And Three Guineas Oxford Worlds Classics:

A Room of One's Own Virginia Woolf, 1998 This volume combines two books by Virginia Woolf which are among the greatest contributions to feminist literature this century They consider the implications of the historical exclusion of women from education and from economic independence Jeanette Winterson's Narratives of Desire Shareena Z.

Hamzah-Osbourne, 2021-05-06 Putting forward a new theory of fetishism alternative fetishism this book provides an up to date examination of the work of Jeanette Winterson offering fresh perspectives and new insights on the topics of gender sexuality and identity in her writing Combining contemporary theories in psychoanalytical and cultural studies it proposes that a rethinking of fetishism allows Winterson's works to be brought into sharper critical focus by repositioning fetishism as a daily practice in society In so doing it argues that Winterson's work challenges orthodox normative and contemporary views of fetishism to reveal her own alternative version Containing the transcript of an email Q A with Winterson herself and covering the majority of Winterson's oeuvre from her first novel Oranges Are Not the Only Fruit 1985 up to the most recent Frankissstein 2019 the book is divided into three main chapters that each discuss a particular theme in Winterson's fiction bodily fetishism food fetishism and sexual fetishism While the book's focus is on Winterson the theoretical framework it proposes can be applied to other authors and disciplines in the Arts and Humanities such as theatre and film offering new ways of thinking about topics such as fetishism feminism psychoanalytical theory postmodernism gender and sexuality A Companion to Virginia Woolf Jessica Berman, 2019-04-15 A Companion to Virginia Woolf is a thorough examination of her life work and multiple contexts in 33 essays written by leading scholars in the field Contains insightful and provocative new scholarship and sketches out new directions for future research Approaches Woolf's writing from a variety of perspectives and disciplines including modernism post colonialism queer theory animal studies digital humanities and the law Explores the multiple trajectories Woolf's work travels around the world from the Bloomsbury Group and the Hogarth Press to India and Latin America Situates Woolf studies at the vanguard of contemporary literature scholarship and the new modernist studies Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre

The Handbook to the Bloomsbury Group Derek Ryan, Stephen Ross, 2018-06-14 The Handbook to the Bloomsbury Group is the most comprehensive available survey of contemporary scholarship on the Bloomsbury Group the set of influential writers artists and thinkers whose members included Virginia Woolf Leonard Woolf E M Forster John Maynard Keynes Vanessa Bell Clive Bell Duncan Grant and David Garnett With chapters written by world leading scholars in the field the book explores novel avenues of thinking about these pivotal figures and their works opened up by the new modernist studies It brings together overview essays with detailed illustrative case studies and covers topics as diverse as feminism sexuality empire philosophy class nature and the arts Setting the agenda for future study of Bloomsbury this is an essential resource for scholars of 20th century modernist culture

Literature and Disability Alice Hall, 2015-08-11 Literature and Disability introduces readers to the field of disability studies and the ways in which a focus on issues of impairment and the representation of disability can provide new approaches to reading and writing about literary texts Disability plays a central role in much of the most celebrated literature yet it is only in recent years that literary criticism has begun to consider the aesthetic ethical and literary challenges that this poses The author explores key debates and issues in disability studies today different forms of impairment with the aim of showing the diversity and ambiguity of the term disability the intersection between literary critical approaches to disability and feminist post colonial and autobiographical writing genre and representations of disability in relation to literary forms including novels short stories poems plays and life writing This volume provides students and academics with an accessible overview of literary critical approaches to disability representation

The Cambridge Companion to Virginia Woolf Sue Roe, Susan Sellers, 2000-05-08 Comprehensive study by leading scholars of Virginia Woolf and her novels letters diaries and essays

Virginia Woolf - Mrs Dalloway Michael Whitworth, 2015-09-29 Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway 1925 has long been recognised as one of her outstanding achievements and one of the canonical works of modernist fiction Each generation of readers has found something new within its pages which is reflected in its varying critical reception over the last ninety years As the novel concerns itself with women's place in society war and madness it was naturally interpreted differently in the ages of second wave feminism the Vietnam War and the anti psychiatry movement This has of course created a rather daunting number of different readings Michael H Whitworth contextualizes the most important critical work and draws attention to the distinctive discourses of critical schools noting their endurance and interplay Whitworth also examines how adaptations such as Michael Cunningham's The Hours can act as critical works in themselves creating an invaluable guide to Mrs Dalloway

Wyndham Lewis's Cultural Criticism and the Infrastructures of Patronage Nathan O'Donnell, 2020-07-02 Wyndham Lewis was both a serious proponent and forthright critic of modernism His assault upon his contemporaries foreshadowed the twenty first century scholarly interest in the networks professions and coteries rather than the myths and heroics of modernism Lewis after a long period of neglect now sits increasingly at the heart of a revised field of modernist studies This book explores Lewis's cultural criticism as a valuable body of writing which posed questions that have yet to be answered about subsidy and the function of the artist about professionalism and ethics about who should pay for the arts and what the artist's obligations should be in return It is the first book length study of this body of critical writing through which Lewis articulated the central and most lasting of his critical preoccupations the question of how the work of the artist is to be valued and the artist to be paid in a professionalised society This book makes an important contribution to the long overdue reassessment of a complex contrarian figure spanning the disciplines of literature and the visual arts who asked pressing questions about the role and status of the artist and ultimately about the value economic civic political of the work of art Media, Minorities, and Meaning Debra L. Merskin, 2011 Foundations Introduction Constructing categories of difference Minorities meaning and mass media Articulations of difference The articulation of difference Country music and redneck woman The construction of Arabs as enemies Perpetuation of the hot Latina stereotype in Desperate housewives Commodified racism brand images of Native Americans The pornographic gaze in mainstream American magazine and fashion advertising Women lipstick and self presentation Sun also rises Stereotypes of the Asian American woman on Lost Coon songs the Black male stereotype in popular American sheet music 1850 1920 Homosexuality and horror the lesbian vampire film Television news coverage of Day without an immigrant
