The Minority Muslim Experience in Mainland Southeast Asia John Goodman, 2021-07-14 This book examines the lives of the Malay and Cham Muslims in Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam and examines how they co exist and live in societies that are dominated by an alternative consensus and are illiberal and non democratic in nature Focusing on two major Muslim communities in Southeast Asia both of whom live as minorities in societies that are not democratic and have a history of hostility and repression towards non conforming ideas the book explains their circumstances the choices and life decisions they have to make and how minorities can thrive in an unfriendly monocultural environment Based on original field work and research the author analyses how people live and how they adapt to societies which are not motivated by Western liberal ideals of multiculturalism The book also offers a unique perspective on how Islam develops in an environment where it is seen as alien and disloyal A useful contribution analyzing historical and post colonial experiences of Muslim minorities and how they survive and evolve over the course of state monopoly in mainland Southeast Asia this book will be of interest to academics working on Muslim minorities Asian Religion and Southeast Asian Studies

Religious Plurality in Africa Marloes Janson, Kai Kresse, Benedikt Pontzen, Hassan Mwakimako, 2024 Grounded in ethnographic and historiographic research and taking a cross regional approach this book explores the complex dynamics of similarity and difference rapprochement and detachment and divergence and competition between practitioners of Christianity Islam and African religious traditions Across Africa Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions live in shared settings demarcating themselves in opposition to one another and at times engaging in violent conflicts but also being entangled in complex ways and showing unexpected similarities and mutual cross overs However while encounters and entanglements of African religious traditions with either Islam or Christianity have long been a central research issue the configuration as a whole has barely been taken into account even though Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions have long co existed and still co exist more or less peacefully in many settings in Africa Building on recent interventions to move beyond the compartmentalization of the study of religion in Africa this edited volume will spotlight why and how an integrated approach to Islam Christianity and African religious traditions is important Bringing together stimulating case studies from Kenya Nigeria Zanzibar Ghana and Mozambique that offer new directions for ethnographic and historical research the volume will not only shed light on an important phenomenon out there in the world the long overlooked ways in which Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions interact with one another in various majority minority configurations but will also engage with a critical rethinking of the study of religion in Africa and beyond
