A New Leaf M. S. D. Samston, 2002 Writing prompts designed to engage modern day writers take inspiration from mythology literature science current events and self reflection Spiritual Journaling Julie Tallard Johnson, 2006-02-23 A guide for teens and young adults on the power of creative journaling and its role in enhancing self discovery and self awareness Provides encouragement for creative writing self expression and self dialogue Includes journaling exercises to inspire creativity and cultivate self esteem By the author of Teen Psychic and The Thundering Years winner of the 2002 Independent Publisher Book Award for multicultural juvenile nonfiction Most teens and young adults search for ways to express their individuality and to discover who they are without being judged In Spiritual Journaling Julie Tallard Johnson shows that journaling is an informative and supportive outlet for the joys frustrations and questions that arise for those making the transition toward their own independent ideas and lives and a powerful tool for awakening creative potential Johnson encourages young people to discover their own unique voices by offering guidance on writing and other forms of self expression and self dialogue and on learning how to listen to inner wisdom As readers move through the book and write in their own personal journals they gain insight about themselves knowledge reflected in their own words and the writing of other young people included in the book The journaling tools provided include meditations consulting oracles writing poetry visualizations writing rituals and problem solving around spiritual questions Teach This Poem, Volume I Madeleine Fuchs Holzer, The Academy of American Poets, 2024-07-03 Instill a love of poetry in your classroom with the illuminating and inviting lessons from Teach This Poem classroom activities Co published with the Academy of American Poets the leading champion of poets and poetry in the US this book is an accessible entry point to teaching poetry and fostering a poetic sensibility in the classroom Each lesson follows a consistent format with a warm up activity to introduce the chosen poem pair shares whole class synthesis related resources oral readings and extension activities Curated by the AAP the poems are chosen with an eye toward fostering compassion and representing diverse experiences Understanding that poetry is a powerful way of seeing the world the volumes are organized thematically Volume I is centered on the natural world and Volume II on equality and justice Aligned with current standards and pedagogy the lessons in this poem will inspire English teachers and their students alike Ishimure Michiko's Writing in Ecocritical Perspective Bruce Allen, Yuki Masami, 2015-11-19 This collection of ecocritical essays is focused on the work of Japan's foremost writer on environment and culture Ishimure Michiko Ishimure is known for her pioneering trilogy that exposed the Minamata Disease incident and the nature of modern industrial pollution She is also regarded by many critics as Japan's most original and important literary writer Ishimure has written over 50 volumes in a wide range of genres including novels Noh drama poetry children's stories essays and mixed genre writing This collection brings together the work of scholars from Japan the U S and Canada who are authorities on Ishimure's writing Contributors discuss Ishimure's writing in the context of the latest issues in ecocritical theory arguing for an expanded more than Western understanding of literature theory and environmental responsibility It will help to relate various environmental cultural and ecocritical issues ranging from the events at Minamata to those at Fukushima and consider how they point to future developments

On the Move to Meaningful Internet Systems 2004: CoopIS, DOA, and ODBASE Zahir Tari, 2004-10-14 sers GADA MOIS WOSE and INTEROP We trust that their audiences will mutually productively and happily mingle with those of the main conferences A special mention for 2004 is in order for the new Doctoral Symposium Workshop where three young post doc researchers organized an original set up and formula to bring PhD students together and allow them to submit their research proposals for selection A limited number of the submissions and their approaches will be independently evaluated by a panel of senior experts at the conference and presented by the students in front of a wider audience These students also got free access to all other parts of the OTM program and only paid a heavily discounted fee for the Doctoral Symposium itself in fact their attendance is largely sponsored by the other participants If evaluated as successful it is the intention of the General Chairs to expand this model in future editions of the OTM conferences and so draw in an audience of young researchers to the OnTheMove forum All three main conferences and the associated workshops share the distributed aspects of modern computing systems and the resulting application pull created by the Internet and the so called Semantic Web

Computers and Writing Patrik O'Brian Holt, Noel Williams, 2012-12-06 Patrik O Brian Holt Heriot Watt University After speech writing is the most common form of human communication and represents the cornerstone of our ability to preserve and record information Writing by its very definition requires artifacts in the form of tools to write with and a medium to write on Through history these artifacts have ranged from sticks and clay tablets feather and leather crude pens and paper sophisticated pens and paper typewriters and paper and electronic devices with or without paper The development of writing tools has straightforward objectives to make writing easier and more effective and assist in distributing written communication fast and efficiently Both the crudest and most sophisticated forms of writing tools act as mediators of human written communication for the purpose of producing distributing and conserving written language In the modern world the computer is arguably the most sophisticated form of mediation the implications of which are not yet fully understood The use of computers a writing artifact which mediates communication for the production and editing of text is almost as old as computers themselves Early computers involved the use of crude text editors and a writer had to insert commands resembling a programming language to format and print a document For example to underline a word the writer had to do the following This is an example of how to underline a single word in order to produce This is an example of how to underline a single word
