The Covenant in Action Tavis Smiley, 2010-05-07 The Covenant in Action was developed to continue the inspirational spirit of the COVENANT WITH BLACK AMERICA and to empower people to take effective action to achieve THE COVENANT goals The information tools and ideas presented in The Covenant in Action will enable and inspire people to become agents of change in their respective communities and to become partners in a larger COVENANT movement The Covenant in Action is organized into three parts 1 stories about the projects and actions that everyday people have undertaken over the past year that were inspired by the COVENANT WITH BLACK AMERICA 2 motivational essays from young Black activists who are on the ground impacting their environments and 3 a toolkit outlining steps you can take to organize connect and act The toolkit contains not only traditional action strategies but includes innovative approaches to organizing and community building that will result in stronger more bonded communities that are reflective of their history and past experiences The COVENANT WITH BLACK AMERICA was only the first step The Covenant in Action toolkit will prime and prepare individuals and communities to actually move the COVENANT book into action

Covenant with Black America - Twenty Years Later Tavis Smiley, 2024-08-27 Twenty years after sparking a national dialogue The Covenant with Black America returns with renewed urgency weaving original insights with contemporary voices and reminding us that our collective liberation is essential for a more equitable society Two decades ago Tavis Smiley curated a pivotal national dialogue with the publication of The Covenant with Black America This groundbreaking manifesto swiftly captured the nation's attention by addressing the critical issues facing African Americans and became a 1 New York Times bestseller challenging America to confront systemic inequalities with extraordinary determination Today as we commemorate its 20th anniversary the urgency of these issues has only intensified Despite significant strides the disparities in health housing justice and economic opportunity continue to disproportionately affect Black communities underscoring the enduring relevance of our collective commitment This new edition intertwines original essays with powerful new contributions from today's leading voices presenting a compelling blend of historical insights and contemporary urgency These essays are not merely reflections but are calls to action reminding us that the path to equality is ongoing and demanding Through these pages we revisit the original ten covenants updated with new data and analysis that reveal both progress and the troubling persistence of inequality This edition also includes a new essay on the state of homelessness in the Black community as numbers have risen to an all time high With a special Afterword by the esteemed poet Nikki Giovanni this anniversary edition of The Covenant with Black America is a testament to the enduring spirit of advocacy and a beacon of light and hope for future generations It invites us all to partake in the crucial work of reshaping America into a more equitable society echoing the timeless truth that our collective liberation uplifts the entire nation As Smiley writes in the Introduction I am convinced in this critical moment of American history that our nation needs us now more than ever to confront the forces of extremism and extend the rich tradition of deep democracy in America as we expand justice and freedom for all

Participatory Grantmaking in Philanthropy David F. Suárez, Jasmine McGinnis Johnson, Cynthia M. Gibson, Chris Cardona, 2024 Amid growing fears that democracy is under threat there has been a surge in the number of civil society organizations internationally that emphasizes civic participation empowerment equality and justice The latter are inherent in participatory practice which has exploded as a result including in the philanthropic sector where there are now a growing number of organizations dedicated to this ethos For decades philanthropy was seen as endowed foundations set up by the rich but that has begun to change with crowdfunding giving circles donor advised funds and a panoply of digital giving platforms that allow everyone to be a philanthropist While tech enabled collective giving is indeed one way in which philanthropy is evolving this collection will address a related but distinct phenomenon institutional foundations that choose to allow nonprofit and community participation in decisions on grants

Race, Gender, and Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Marybeth Gasman, N. Drezner, E. Epstein, T. Freeman, V. Avery, 2011-11-15 This volume centers on the lives and experiences of female and African American leaders of foundations and nonprofits Contributors to the volume examine race and gender as constructs and provide a theoretical background for understanding their effect on the psycho social development of the individuals The Black Church Studies Reader Alton B. Pollard, Carol B. Duncan, 2016-04-29 The Black Church Studies Reader addresses the depth and breadth of Black theological studies from Biblical studies and ethics to homiletics and pastoral care The book examines salient themes of social and religious significance such as gender sexuality race social class health care and public policy While the volume centers around African American experiences and studies it also attends to broader African continental and Diasporan religious contexts The contributors reflect an interdisciplinary blend of Black Church Studies scholars and practitioners from across the country The text seeks to address the following fundamental questions What constitutes Black Church Studies as a discipline or field of study What is the significance of Black Church Studies for theological education What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and the broader academic study of Black religions What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and local congregations as well as other faith based entities The book's search for the answers to these questions is compelling and illuminating

Fundraising and Institutional Advancement Noah D. Drezner, Frances Huehls, 2014-09-04 In this timely textbook authors Drezner and Huehls take the interdisciplinary complex nature of the study of philanthropy and fundraising and apply it to the field of higher education Covering issues of increasing importance to institutions including donor cultivation growth of fundraising at community colleges and minority institutions engagement of young alumni volunteerism and the competing roles of stakeholders this book helps readers apply theory to the practice of advancement in post secondary education Special Features Coverage of historical and theoretical underpinnings and insights from related literature and research Discussion of new donor populations including women communities of color the LGBTQ population students and young alumni On the ground case studies bring theories into focus by creating a bridge to experience and action Practical implications for the design of fundraising campaigns and strategies Guiding questions that encourage students to think beyond the current literature and practice This textbook bridges research theory and practice to help higher education administrators and institutions effectively negotiate the fundraising terrain and advance their institution Organizing
