A Place In Space Ethics Aesthetics And Watersheds:

A Place in Space Gary Snyder, 2008-06-28 A collection of twenty nine essays written over the past forty years

A Place in Space Gary Snyder, 2008-06-28 In this classic collection of 29 pieces that span half a century Gary Snyder explores humans complex ever evolving attitudes toward the environment He argues that nature is not separate from humanity but intrinsic to it and that since societies are natural constructs it s imperative to go beyond racial ethnic and religious identities to find a shared concern for acts that benefit humans and nonhumans alike Included in the collection is his 1971 environmental manifesto Four Changes which as he writes in a postscript is unfortunately truer than ever In this new edition Snyder sends out a call to action that challenges all beings to take moral responsibility a call that resounds with readers discovering the book for the first time or those returning to an old favorite

A Sense of the Whole Mark Gonnerman, 2015-06-09 In 1997 Mark Gonnerman organized a yearlong research workshop on Gary Snyder s Mountains and Rivers Without End at the Stanford Humanities Center Members of what came to be known among faculty students and diverse community members as the Mountains Rivers Workshop met regularly to read and discuss Snyder s epic poem Here the poem served as a commons that turned the multiversity into a university once again if only for a moment The Workshop invited writers teachers and scholars from Northern California and Japan to speak on various aspects of Snyder s great accomplishment This book captures the excitement of these gatherings and invites readers to enter the poem through essays and talks by David Abram Wendell Berry Carl Bielefeldt Tim Dean Jim Dodge Robert Hass Stephanie Kaza Julia Martin Michael McClure Nanao Sakaki and Katsunori Yamazato It includes an interview with Gary Snyder appendices and other resources for further study Snyder once introduced a reading of this work with reference to whitewater rapids saying most of his writing is like a Class III run where you will do just fine on your own but that Mountains and Rivers is more like Class V if you re going to make it to take out you need a guide As a collection of commentaries and background readings this companion volume enhances each reader s ability to find their way into and through an adventurous and engaging work of art

Space and Place: Diversity in Reality, Imagination, and Representation Brooke L. Rogers, Anna Sugiyama, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The search for a greater understanding of space and place inevitably involves an encounter with divergent approaches across a range of academic disciplines Twenty authors from disciplines such as architecture archeology philosophy social work politics and the creative and visual arts have contributed papers to this compilation ecology orthodoxy and activism traditional theology and a passionate mission to save the planet As green sisters explore ways of living a meaningful religious life in the face of increased cultural diversity and ecological crisis their story offers hope for the future and for a deeper understanding of the connections between women religion ecology and culture "Terra

Incognita" Virginia Hyde, Earl G. Ingersoll, 2010 Terra Incognita D H Lawrence at the Frontiers edited by Virginia Crosswhite Hyde and Earl G Ingersoll is a collection of nine essays by scholars from five countries They show ways in which Lawrence explored not only remote regions of the earth but also consciousness and human relations The book also considers implications of terms like frontier boundary and place It gives readings that are the first to utilize new texts and research in the final prose volumes of the Cambridge Lawrence Edition This includes all the essays Lawrence wrote in America about Southwestern and Mexican Indians Mornings in Mexico and Other Essays 2009 Writers are Michael Hollington Judith Ruderman Edina Pereira Crunfli Tina Ferris Virginia Crosswhite Hyde Jack Stewart Keith Cushman Julianne Newmark and Paul Poplawski In addition to the essays the book contains eight pages of color illustrations It will interest both general readers and scholars of Lawrence and of twentieth century literature Publisher's website A Country Called Childhood Jay Griffiths, 2015-11-10 While traveling the world in order to write her award winning book Wild Jay Griffiths became increasingly aware of the huge differences in how childhood is experienced in various cultures One central riddle in particular captured her imagination why are so many children in Euro American cultures unhappy and why is it that children in traditional cultures seem happier In A Country Called Childhood Griffiths seeks to discover why we deny our children the freedoms of space time and the natural world Visiting communities as far apart as West Papua and the Arctic as well as the UK and delving into history philosophy language and literature she explores how children's affinity for nature is an essential and universal element of childhood It is a journey deep into the heart of what it means to be a child and it is central to all our experiences young and old Deep Ecology and World Religions David Landis Barnhill, Roger S. Gottlieb, 2010-03-29

Bringing together thirteen new essays on the important relationship between traditional world spirituality and the contemporary environmental perspective of deep ecology this landmark book explores parallels and contrasts between religious values and those proposed by deep ecology In examining how deep ecologists and the various religious traditions can both learn from and critique one another the following traditions are considered indigenous cultures Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Confucianism Judaism Catholicism Islam Protestantism Christian ecofeminism and New Age spirituality

Restoration of Degraded Rivers: Challenges, Issues and Experiences D.P. Loucks, 2013-04-17 In the continued quest for increased economic benefits from our water resources numerous structures and operating policies for controlling the river flow have been built and implemented These structures and associated operating policies can facilitate navigation they can provide greater quantities of reliable water supplies to meet agricultural industrial and municipal water demands they can generate hydroelectric power and energy and they can provide increased flood protection recreation and other benefits Over the past half century we have converted many of our rivers into engineered waterways These straightened often periodically dredged engineered rivers are complete with dikes reservoirs weirs and diversion canals All this engineering has enhanced economic development However as rivers and their floodplains become stressed from the excessive use and misuse of their resources their contribution to economic development can be threatened Evidence of economic and ecological degradation especially in relatively large river systems such as the Danube the Mississippi the Rhine and the Volga has increased our appreciation of beneficial roles natural aquatic and terrestrial ecosystems play in water quantity and quality management We have recognized the need to pay more attention to letting nature help us regulate water quantity and quality rather than working against nature and its variabilities and uncertainties Today there are efforts underway in many developed river basins to de engineer or return these straightened and controlled rivers to a more natural state
