Teaching Statistical Concepts Anne Hawkins, Flavia Jolliffe, Leslie Glickman, 2014-09-19 There is growing recognition that statistics should be part of the core curriculum for the compulsory schooling of all children leading to a now urgent need for teachers to be trained in both statistical content and appropriate teaching methods This book lays the foundation for teacher s responses to these changes exploring how best to teach those applied skills which are now seen to be a more relevant part of the content of statistical courses

Language Standardization and Language Change Ana Deumert, 2004-03-31 Language Standardization and Language Change describes the formation of an early standard norm at the Cape around 1900 The processes of variant reduction and sociolinguistic focusing which accompanied the early standardization history of Afrikaans or Cape Dutch as it was then called are analysed within the broad methodological framework of corpus linguistics and variation analysis Multivariate statistical techniques cluster analysis multidimensional scaling and PCA are used to model the emergence of linguistic uniformity in the Cape Dutch speech community The book also examines language contact and creolization in the early settlement the role of Afrikaner nationalism in shaping language attitudes and linguistic practices and the influence of English As a case study in historical sociolinguistics the book calls into question the traditional view of the emergence of an Afrikaans standard norm and advocates a strongly sociolinguistic speaker orientated approach to language history in general and standardization studies in particular
