When we require that in each of the chambers there is at least one of the particles, the following spin-spin problem can be posed: find the first system of three mutually strong magnets. For convenience, we assume that the magnets are placed in parallel planes. The first solution is obtained by the method of optimal control.

In 1999, there was an estimated 10% rise in the number of children in child marriage, and 11 million more girls in countries that entered in 1999. A quarter of the new girls 15 and over married in the year in that in the year.

Despite the success of the regime, says one senior Israeli intelligence official, the "biggest problem" facing the government is the "lack of a credible threat of the regime's collapse." The Israeli intelligence community is deeply split on how to deal with a government of religious fanatics, many members of which are known to be involved in terrorism. "We have no idea what to do," says one senior intelligence official. "We have no idea how to deal with this government."

is improving our relationships with the customer and staff. And the business itself is considered as the highest priority. But that didn't mean that Shogakukan is a company in 2010 that only looks at their bottom line. What they really wanted to do was to create a business that would be able to survive in the long run and to become a leader in the market.
