already emerging Pioneering the Possible tackles the deeply embedded 20th century values that get in the way of addressing global problems and shows how these destructive values can be and are being reversed. We know the world is in crisis; we are spoiling our planet at such a rate that soon it may be unable to sustain human life. This crisis is in fact a vast opportunity because a secure and satisfying future for all of humanity is perfectly possible if we make the right choices. But building such a future will require the leap in consciousness that Einstein indicated when he said: No problem can be solved from the consciousness that created it. Pioneering the Possible investigates what this new consciousness is and takes us to meet the leaders who have learned to apply it. With profiles of individuals who exemplify transformative leadership such as Dr Desmond Tutu and Aung San Suu Kyi, Dr Elworthy demonstrates how anyone can develop the magnificent inner power to build their own personal contribution to the future and become a 21st century pioneer of what's possible. The book then contrasts the value systems that underpin our current decisions with the kind of values that would enable us to make better choices: those that could get us out of the mess we're in. To envision the kind of future that is possible, a lift-off into life as it could be, Elworthy calls on some experienced specialists to look through their telescopes into the future, then brings in the pragmatists who know what to do in their fields because they've done it, tested it, and made it work. Pioneering the Possible ultimately helps you find your unique way to be useful, as Dr Elworthy says: to discover your mission and put it into action instead of worrying on the sidelines is to find peace of mind and a heart full of love.

Love in the Age of Ecological Apocalypse Carolyn Baker, 2015-03-24

Given the daunting, dire predicament in which we find ourselves on this planet, what is described by social critic James Howard Kunstler as a Long Emergency may in fact become a Last Emergency for humanity. Whether we encounter a long or a last emergency, Carolyn Baker seeks to offer inspiration and guidance for inhabiting our remaining days with passion, vitality, empathy, intimate contact with our emotions, kindness in our relationships with all species, gratitude, open-hearted receptivity, exquisite creations of beauty, and utilizing every occasion, even our demise, as an opportunity to invoke and inflict joy in our world. Love in the Age of Ecological Apocalypse addresses an array of relationships in the Last Emergency and how one's relationship with oneself may enrich or impede interactions with all other beings. Drawing upon her deep experience as a life coach, Baker writes of the specific need to understand our key relationships in a society in collapse and how to navigate through differing levels of acceptance of collapse, trauma, and grief. Key relationships include those with our partners, children, friends, neighbors, as well as relationships with our work, our bodies, our natural resources, food and eating animals, future generations, Eros, and indeed the powers of the universe. Baker's writing is engaging, inspiring, and often beautiful in its depth and candor. She introduces a variety of spiritual practices that facilitate our developing a relationship with the deeper Self. With these practices and giving and receiving support from others who are walking a similar path, we begin to live more frequently from the deeper Self or at least are able to access it more quickly when we find ourselves becoming embroiled in the ego.
