The Nine Lives of Pakistan Declan Walsh, 2020-11-17 Winner of the 2021 Overseas Press Club of America Cornelius Ryan Award The former New York Times Pakistan bureau chief paints an arresting up close portrait of a fractured country Declan Walsh is one of the New York Times's most distinguished international correspondents His electrifying portrait of Pakistan over a tumultuous decade captures the sweep of this strange wondrous and benighted country through the dramatic lives of nine fascinating individuals On assignment as the country careened between crises Walsh traveled from the raucous port of Karachi to the salons of Lahore and from Baluchistan to the mountains of Waziristan He met a diverse cast of extraordinary Pakistanis a chieftain readying for war at his desert fort a retired spy skulking through the borderlands and a crusading lawyer risking death for her beliefs among others Through these nine lives he describes a country on the brink a place of creeping extremism and political chaos but also personal bravery and dogged idealism that defy easy stereotypes Unbeknownst to Walsh however an intelligence agent was tracking him Written in the aftermath of Walsh's abrupt deportation The Nine Lives of Pakistan concludes with an astonishing encounter with that agent and his revelations about Pakistan's powerful security state. Intimate and complex, attuned to the centrifugal forces of history, identity and faith, The Nine Lives of Pakistan offers an unflinching account of life in a precarious vital country.

Globalization and Culture Jan Nederveen Pieterse, Mellichamp Professor of Global Studies and Sociology, 2015-02-12. Now fully revised and updated, this book argues that we are witnessing the formation of a global m-lange culture through processes of cultural mixing. Jan Nederveen Pieterse's historically deep and geographically wide approach to globalization is essential reading as we face the increasing spread of conflicts bred by cultural misunderstanding.

Globalization and Culture Jan Nederveen Pieterse, 2019-05-17. Now updated with new chapters on culture and on populism, this seminal text disputes the view that we are experiencing a clash of civilizations as well as the idea that globalization leads to cultural homogenization. Instead, Jan Nederveen Pieterse argues that we are witnessing the formation of a global m-lange culture through processes of cultural mixing or hybridization. From this perspective, on globalization, conflict may be mitigated and identity preserved, albeit transformed. In a new chapter on China, the author focuses on the key issue of agency and power in hybridization. Throughout the book, offers a comprehensive treatment of hybridization arguments and, in discussing globalization and culture, problematizes the meaning of culture. This historically deep and geographically wide approach to globalization is essential reading as we face the increasing spread of conflicts bred by cultural misunderstanding.

How the World Remade Hollywood Ed Glaser, 2022-03-07. For decades, filmmakers worldwide have been remaking Hollywood movies in colorful ways. They've chronicled a singing and dancing Hannibal Lecter in India, star-crossed lovers aboard the doomed Nigerian ship Titanic, a Japanese expedition to the planet of the apes, and an uncivil war in Turkey between Captain America and a mobbed-up Spider-Man. Most of these films were low budget and many were unauthorized, but all of them were fantastic and lately have begun to resurface thanks to cherry-picked YouTube clips. But why and how were they made in the first place? This book tells the little-known stories of the wily filmmakers who made an Italian 007 flick by casting Sean Connery's tradesman brother, produced a Turkish space opera by stealing a print of Star Wars for its effects footage, and transported a full-fledged Terminator to the present day, not from a post-apocalyptic future but from the vibrant mythology of Indonesia. Their stories reveal more than mere imitations; they demonstrate the fascinating ways ideas evolve as they cross borders.
