Fairbanks, 2021-05-25 A riveting account of a fishing boat and its four young crewman lost at sea in 1984 off the coast of Montauk in eastern Long Island a fishing town with a drinking problem as the locals have it and the stunning repercussions of that loss for the families and friends of the four missing men and indeed the entire storied summer community of the Hamptons Accompany Them with Singing--The Christian Funeral Thomas G. Long, 2009-10-02 Thomas Long begins this fascinating volume by describing how the Christian funeral developed historically theologically and liturgically and then discusses recent cultural trends in funeral practices including the rise in both cremations and memorial services He describes the basic pattern for a funeral service details options in funeral planning identifies characteristics of a good funeral and provides thoughtful guidance for preaching at a funeral Long also notes a disturbing trend toward funeral services that seem theologically right and pastorally caring but actually depart from the primary aims of the Christian funeral He argues that a new less theological and less satisfying service that focuses on the mourner has begun to erode the Christian view He contrasts the ancient grand community drama with today's trend toward body less memorial services that focus primarily on the living and grief management This is a loss for the church he argues and he calls for the church to reclaim the classic metaphor *Bellamira, or The mistress. could to let her know he was still with her Their reciprocal spiritual bonds transformed Linda's off-kilter journey through her heart fracturing grief into a heroic odyssey of what she calls re orbiting around love and happiness Each chapter of Linda's beautifully written memoir intertwines romance spirituality and the healing power of cultivating and continuing loving bonds To this day John reaches out to Linda through spiritual communication messages in nature uncanny coincidences and visitations in her dreams Linda reaches out to John through meditation journaling creative arts memorial events joint legacy projects and adventures of being alone but not alone Although everything absolutely everything is now so very different they are together still loving beyond death
