what sense can we call divine impassibility immoral To be sure God's moral nature teaches humans what it means to live virtuously But can human understandings of morality teach us something about God's moral character If true how should we go about judging God's moral character Isn't it presumptuous to do so After all if we are going to challenge divine impassibility on moral grounds what reason do we have to assume that God is bound by our standards of morality Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine addresses these questions and many others In the process Sirvent argues for the importance of thinking morally about theology inviting scholars in the fields of philosophical theology and Christian ethics to place their theological commitments under close moral scrutiny and to consider how these commitments reflect and shape our understanding of the good life
