Thinking Like a Man Bettina Gramlich-Oka, 2006-05-01 In her political treatise Hitori kangae Solitary Thoughts 1818 Tadano Makuzu 1763 1825 presents her observations and critiques of the intellectual and socio-political landscapes of the late Tokugawa period 1600 1868 It is especially the samurai woman's perspective that makes Makuzu's treatise such a rich source of often implicit information on contemporary society The biographical details of Makuzu's life and family are given social and historical context in terms of her self-conscious status as a samurai woman Through close analysis of Makuzu's philosophical and autobiographical writings Dr Gramlich Oka reveals Makuzu to have been a natural product of the variety of intellectual schools and circles of her time In extending Makuzu's unique critique of the intellectual's lack of concern with women to contemporary intellectual history the author carves a new path in incorporating gender into intellectual history and biography writing

Sino-Japanese Reflections Joshua A. Fogel, Matthew Fraleigh, 2022-05-09 Sino Japanese Reflections offers ten richly detailed case studies that examine various forms of cultural and literary interaction between Japanese and Chinese intellectuals from the late Ming to the early twentieth century The authors consider efforts by early modern scholars on each side of the Yellow Sea to understand the language and culture of the other to draw upon received texts and forms and to contribute to shared literary practices Whereas literary and cultural flow within the Sinosphere is sometimes imagined to be an entirely unidirectional process of textual dissemination from China to the periphery the contributions to this volume reveal a more complex picture highlighting how literary and cultural engagement was always an opportunity for creative adaptation and negotiation Examining materials such as Chinese translations of Japanese vernacular poetry Japanese engagements with Chinese supernatural stories adaptations of Japanese historical tales into vernacular Chinese Sinitic poetry composed in Japan and Japanese Sinology the volume brings together recent work by literary scholars and intellectual historians of multiple generations all of whom have a strong comparative interest in Sino Japanese studies

Record of Miraculous Events in Japan ,2013-07-23 The Nihon ryoiki a collection of setsuwa or anecdotal tales compiled by a monk in late eighth or early ninth century Japan records the spread of Buddhist ideas in Japan and the ways in which Buddhism s principles were adapted to the conditions of Japanese society Beginning in the time before Buddhism was introduced to Japan the text captures the effects of the nation s initial contact with Buddhism brought by emissaries from the king of the Korean state of Paekche and the subsequent adoption and dissemination of these new teachings in Japanese towns and cities The Nihon ryoiki provides a crucial window into the ways in which Japanese Buddhists began to make sense of the teachings and texts of their religion incorporate religious observances and materials from Korea and China and articulate a popularized form of Buddhist practice and belief that could extend beyond monastic centers The setsuwa genre would become one of the major textual projects of classical and medieval Buddhism with nearly two dozen collections appearing over the next five centuries The Nihon ryoiki serves as a vital reference for these later works with the tales it contains finding their way into folkloric traditions and becoming a major source for Japanese authors well into the modern period
