Brief Den Vater Franz Kafka:

Letter to the Father/Brief an den Vater Franz Kafka, 2015-11-03 A son's poignant letter to his father from the author of The Metamorphosis and The Trial and one of the most important writers of the twentieth century. One of the great confessions of literature. The New York Times Book Review. Franz Kafka wrote this letter to his father Hermann Kafka in November 1919. Max Brod, Kafka's literary executor, relates that Kafka actually gave the letter to his mother to hand to his father, hoping it might renew a relationship that had lost itself in tension and frustration on both sides. But Kafka's probing of the deep flaw in their relationship spared neither his father nor himself. He could not help seeing the failure of communication between father and son as another moment in the larger existential predicament depicted in so much of his work. Probably realizing the futility of her son's gesture, Julie Kafka did not deliver the letter but instead returned it to its author.

Brief an den Vater Franz Kafka, 1987 Brief an den Vater (Vollständige Ausgabe) Franz Kafka, 2017-11
Der Brief an den Vater ist ein 1919 verfasster, niemals abgeschickter Brief Franz Kafkas an seinen Vater. Er wurde postum 1952 in der Neuen Rundschau veröffentlicht und ist ein bevorzugter Text für psychoanalytische und biographische Studien über Kafka. Nachdem Franz Kafka im Januar 1919 bei einem Kuraufenthalt in Scheerlesen bei Hohenheim Julie Wohryzek kennengelernt hatte und sich einige Monate später mit ihr verlobte, reagierte sein Vater ungehalten auf seine neuen und unstandesgemäßen Heiratspläne. Es wird angenommen, dass dies der Auslöser für die Verfassung des Briefes zwischen dem 10. und 13. November 1919 war. Der ausladende Brief besteht im Original aus 103 handschriftlichen Seiten, auf denen Kafka versucht, seinen Vaterkonflikt schreibend zu bewältigen. Viele seiner Lebensschwierigkeiten schreibt er der totalen Wesensverschiedenheit zwischen sich und dem Vater zu. In erster Linie wird im Brief die Wesensunverträglichkeit herausgearbeitet. Hermann, der kraftvolle, impulsiv-jähzornige Vater, Sohn eines Fleischhauers ohne Bildung, der sich emporgearbeitet hat. Der Sohn Franz verweicht und unselbstständig durch des Vaters Wohlstand völlig vernachlässigt, unzugänglich und eingesponnen in seine geistige Welt. Franz Kafka (1883-1924) war ein deutschsprachiger Schriftsteller. Sein Hauptwerk bilden neben drei Romanfragmenten Der Prozess, Das Schloss und Der Verschollene zahlreiche Erzählungen.

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary, such as the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator, and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles, etc., can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age, where the media and other technological-cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits, and autofiction, as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

A Franz Kafka Encyclopedia Richard T. Gray, Ruth V. Gross, Rolf J. Goebel, Clayton Koelb, 2005-08-30 Known for depicting alienation frustration and the victimization of the individual by impenetrable bureaucracies Kafka's works have given rise to the term Kafkaesque This encyclopedia details Kafka's life and writings Included are more than 800 alphabetically arranged entries on his works characters family members and acquaintances themes and other topics Most of the entries cite works for further reading and the Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography

Kafka's Zoopoetics Naama Harel, 2020-05-04 Nonhuman figures are ubiquitous in the work of Franz Kafka from his early stories down to his very last one Despite their prominence throughout his oeuvre Kafka's animal representations have been considered first and foremost as mere allegories of intrahuman matters In recent years the allegorization of Kafka's animals has been poetically dismissed by Kafka's commentators and politically rejected by posthumanist scholars Such critique however has yet to inspire either an overarching or an interdiscursive account This book aims to fill this lacuna Positioning animal stories as a distinct and significant corpus within Kafka's entire poetics and closely examining them in dialogue with both literary and posthumanist analysis Kafka's Zoopoetics critically revisits animality interspecies relations and the very human animal contradistinction in the writings of Franz Kafka Kafka's animals typically stand at the threshold between humanity and animality fusing together human and nonhuman features Among his liminal creatures we find a human transformed into vermin in The Metamorphosis an ape turned into a human being in A Report to an Academy talking jackals in Jackals and Arabs a philosophical dog in Researches of a Dog a contemplative mole like creature in The Burrow and indiscernible beings in Josefine the Singer or the Mouse People Depicting species boundaries as mutable and obscure Kafka creates a fluid human animal space which can be described as humanimal The constitution of a humanimal space radically undermines the stark barrier between human and other animals dictated by the anthropocentric paradigm Through denying animalistic elements in humans and disavowing the agency of nonhuman animals excluding them from social life and neutralizing compassion for them this barrier has been designed to regularize both humanity and animality The contextualization of Kafka's animals within posthumanist theory engenders a post anthropocentric arena which is simultaneously both imagined and very real

Stations of the Divided Subject Richard T. Gray, 1995 A sociohistory of German bourgeois literature from 1770-1914 based on detailed readings of six canonical literary texts

Kafka Reiner Stach, 2016-10-25 The eagerly anticipated final volume of the award winning definitive biography of Franz Kafka How did Kafka become Kafka This eagerly anticipated third and final volume of Reiner Stach's definitive biography of the writer answers that question with more facts and insight than ever before describing the complex personal political and cultural circumstances that shaped the young Franz Kafka 1883 1924 It tells the story of the years from his birth in Prague to the beginning of his professional and literary career in 1910 taking the reader up to just before the breakthrough that resulted in his first masterpieces including The Metamorphosis Brimming with vivid and often startling details Stach's narrative invites readers deep inside this neglected period of Kafka's life The book's richly atmospheric portrait of his German Jewish merchant family and his education psychological development and sexual maturation draws on numerous sources some still unpublished including family letters schoolmates memoirs and early diaries of his close friend Max Brod The biography also provides a colorful panorama of Kafka's wider world especially the convoluted politics and culture of Prague Before World War I Kafka lived in a society at the threshold of modernity but torn by conflict and Stach provides poignant details of how the adolescent Kafka witnessed violent outbreaks of anti-Semitism and nationalism The reader also learns how he developed a passionate interest in new technologies particularly movies and airplanes and why another interest his predilection for the back to nature movement stemmed from his nervous surroundings rather than personal eccentricity The crowning volume to a masterly biography this is an unmatched account of how a boy who grew up in an old Central European monarchy became a writer who helped create modern literature

Kafka's *The Trial Espen Hammer, 2018-03-23 Kafka's novel The Trial written from 1914 to 1915 and published in 1925 is a multi-faceted notoriously difficult manifestation of European literary modernism and one of the most emblematic books of the 20th Century It tells the story of Josef K a man accused of a crime he has no recollection of committing and whose nature is never revealed to him The novel is often interpreted theologically as an expression of radical nihilism and a world abandoned by God It is also read as a parable of the cold inhumane rationality of modern bureaucratization Like many other novels of this turbulent period it offers a tragic quest narrative in which the hero searches for truth and clarity whether about himself or the anonymous system he is facing only to fall into greater and greater confusion This collection of nine new essays and an editor's introduction brings together Kafka experts intellectual historians literary scholars and philosophers in order to explore the novel's philosophical and theological significance Authors pursue the novel's central concerns of justice law resistance ethics alienation and subjectivity Few novels display human uncertainty and skepticism in the face of rapid modernization or the metaphysical as it intersects with the most mundane aspects of everyday life more insistently than The Trial Ultimately the essays in this collection focus on how Kafka's text is in fact philosophical in the ways in which it achieves its literary aims Rather than considering ideas as externally related to the text the text is considered philosophical at the very level of literary form and technique

Kafka: A Guide for the Perplexed Clayton Koelb, 2010-06-17 Franz Kafka is one of the most widely taught and read writers in world literature Readers encountering texts like The Metamorphosis and The Trial for the first time are frequently perplexed by his often intentionally weird writing Some might say that Kafka's enduring achievement has been to make his readers love being perplexed As much of Kafka's writing is designed to perplex the reader this guide helps the reader understand why and how perplexity has been deliberately created by Kafka's text and to realize what the uses of such perplexity might be The book guides readers through their first encounters with Kafka and introduces the problems involved in reading his texts the nature of his texts from the key novels and novellas to letters and professional writings his life as a writer and different approaches to reading Kafka
