American folk musician and composer Jay Ungar composed Ashokan Farewell in 1982, when he said he 'was feeling a great sense of loss and longing for the music, the dancing and the community of people that had developed' during that summer's Ashokan Fiddle & Dance Camp. The intense sadness he felt at having to return to the city after time in nature, surrounded by people who 'needed little excuse to celebrate the joy of living', is poignantly expressed through this simple tune, which Ungar says he 'had no idea ... could affect others in the same way'. The ornaments in this arrangement, which fit just before the beat, are characteristic of the music's folk roots.
