Assessment Practices

Types of Assessments

- 1. Diagnostic: Used to identify students' strengths and weaknesses, assess prior knowledge, and guide instruction. (Gardner, 2000)
- 2. Formative: Designed to monitor student learning and provide ongoing feedback to guide instruction. (Gardner, 2000)
- 3. Summative: Used to evaluate student learning at the end of a course or program. (Gardner, 2000)

"Language is the great bridge of a nation. It tells you where it's going, where it's been, and where it's going to."

—John F. Kennedy

Alignment of Assessment

Assessment should be aligned with the learning objectives of the course. This means that the assessment should measure the same skills and knowledge that are being taught in the course. For example, if the course objective is for students to be able to write a persuasive essay, then the assessment should include a writing task that requires students to write a persuasive essay. This ensures that the assessment is a valid measure of student learning.
