The Black Consciousness Reader Baldwin

Ndaba, Therese Owen, Masego Panyane, Rabbie Sermula, Janet Smith, 2019-04-25 There is a current revival of Black Consciousness as political and student movements around the world as well as academics and campaigners working in decolonization reconfigure the continued struggle for socio economic revolution Yet the roots of Black Consciousness and its relation to other movements such as Black Lives Matter have only begun to be explored Black Consciousness has deep connections to the struggle against apartheid The Black Consciousness Reader is an essential collection of history culture philosophy and meaning of Black Consciousness by some of the thinkers artists and activists who developed it in order to finally bring revolution to South Africa A contribution to the world's Black cultural archive it examines how the proper acknowledgement of Blackness brings a greater love a broader sweep of heroes and a wider understanding of intellectual and political influences Although the legendary murdered activist Steve Biko is a strong figure within this history the book documents many other significant international Black Consciousness personalities and focuses a predominantly African eye on Black Consciousness in politics land women power art music and religion Onkgopotse Tiro Vuyelwa Mashalaba Winnie Madikizela Mandela Assata Shakur Marcus Garvey Neville Alexander Thomas Sankara Malcolm X Don Mattera Keorapetse Kgositsile W E B DuBois Walter Rodney Mongane Wally Serote Ready D and Zola are among the many bold minds included in this amalgam of facts ideas and images Decoloniality in Gender Discourse and Praxis Mtisunge Isabel

Kamlongera, 2025-05-05 This book showcases Global South theorizations and understandings of gender By taking voices from the margins and putting them center stage this book provides an important example of decoloniality in action challenging a field that continues to be rooted in Western Feminist epistemology This book first analyzes the history and development of gender discourse before going on to investigate non Western philosophy and frameworks around gender Each chapter presents instances of decoloniality in action with possible retheorizations and rationalizations of how to be decolonial within gender discourse and praxis This book concludes by considering what the future implications of a truly decolonial gender discourse and praxis would be Offering detailed empirical accounts of decoloniality in action this book will be a useful guide for researchers of gender and post colonial studies The Work of Repair Thomas Cousins, 2023-06-06

In the timber plantations in northeastern South Africa laborers work long hours among tall swaying lines of eucalypts on land once theirs In 2008 at the height of the HIV AIDS crisis timber corporations distributed hot cooked meals as a nutrition intervention to bolster falling productivity and profits But life and sustenance are about much more than calories and machinic bodies What is at stake is the nurturing of capacity across all domains of life physical relational cosmological in the form of amandla An Nguni word meaning power strength or capacity amandla organizes ordinary concerns with one's abilities to earn a wage to strengthen one's body and to take care of others it describes the potency of medicines and sexual vitality and it captures a history of anti colonial and anti apartheid struggle for freedom The ordinary actions coordinated by and directed at amandla do not obscure the wounding effects of plantation labor or the long history of racial oppression but rather form the basis of what the Algerian artist Kader Attia calls repair In this captivating ethnography Cousins examines how amandla as the primary material of the work of repair anchors ordinary scenes of living and working in and around the plantations As a space of exploitation that enables the global paper and packaging industry to extract labor power the plantation depends on the availability of creative action in ordinary life to capitalize on bodily capacity The Work of Repair is a fine grained exploration of the relationships between laborers in the timber plantations of KwaZulu Natal and the historical decompositions and reinventions of the milieu of those livelihoods and lives Offering a fresh approach to the existential ethical and political stakes of ethnography from and of late liberal South Africa the book attends to urgent questions of postapartheid life the fate of employment the role of the state in providing welfare and access to treatment the regulation of popular curatives the queering of kinship and the future of custom and its territories Through detailed descriptions Cousins explicates the important and fragile techniques that constitute the work of repair the effort to augment one's capacity in a way that draws on acknowledges and reimagines the wounds of history keeping open the possibility of a future through and with others

Decolonial Aesthetics of Blackness in Contemporary Art Nkosinkulu, Zingisa, 2024-09-13 Decolonial aesthetics of Blackness in contemporary art challenge and redefine traditional narratives offering a profound critique of historical and ongoing injustices This approach emphasizes the reclamation and celebration of Black cultural identities through innovative artistic expressions that resist colonialist frameworks and oppressive stereotypes By emphasizing the experiences and perspectives of Black artists decolonial aesthetics challenge the power structures presented in art history and highlight the significance of autonomy representation and authenticity To advance this dialogue it is crucial to support and engage with Black artists and their work ensuring that their voices are amplified and their contributions are recognized within art discourse Decolonial Aesthetics of Blackness in Contemporary Art focuses on the generative audio and visual inscription of blackness as an offering of life and beauty in contemporary art It discusses the concept of blackness related to modernity decolonial aesthetics and ontology of black life and beauty This book covers topics such as decolonization visual art and sociology and is a useful resource for art historians visual artists sociologists academicians scientists and researchers

African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial

frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa Routledge
