Richard J. Walsh

Brugge En De Renaissance:

Medieval Bruges Andrew Brown, Jan Dumolyn, 2018-05-03 Bruges was undoubtedly one of the most important cities in medieval Europe Bringing together specialists from both archaeology and history this total history presents an integrated view of the city's history from its very beginnings tracing its astonishing expansion through to its subsequent decline in the sixteenth century The authors analysis of its commercial growth industrial production socio political changes and cultural creativity is grounded in an understanding of the city's structure its landscape and its built environment More than just a biography of a city this book places Bruges within a wider network of urban and rural development and its history in a comparative framework thereby offering new insights into the nature of a metropolis The World of Carolus Clusius

Florike Egmond, 2015-10-06 Egmond's study investigates horticultural techniques fashions in the collection of rare plants botanical experimentation and methods of scientific evaluation as well as tracking the exchange of knowledge Central to this activity is the figure of Carolus Clusius 1526-1609 the first truly scientific botanist Rethinking the Dialogue between the Verbal and the Visual

Ingrid Falque, Agnès Guiderdoni, 2022-11-14 Intermediality figurability iconotext visual exegesis these are some of the many new ways in which the relationship between text and image has been explored in recent decades Scholars have benefited from theoretical work in the fields of anthropology psychoanalysis and semiotics alongside more traditional fields such as literature art history and cultural history Focusing on religious texts and images between 1400 and 1700 the essays gathered in this volume contribute to these developments by grounding their case studies in methodology In considering various relations between the visual and the verbal the editors have adopted the broadest position possible emphasizing the phenomenological point of view from which the objects under discussion are examined Contributors to this volume Ralph Dekoninck Anna Dlabová Gregory Ems Ingrid Falque Agnès Guiderdoni Walter S Melion Kees Schepers Paul J Smith and Elliott D Wise The Murder, Betrayal, and Slaughter of the Glorious Charles, Count of Flanders

Galbert (de Bruges), Galbert De Bruges, Galbert of Bruges, 2013-11-26 In 1127 Charles the Good count of Flanders was surrounded by assassins while at prayer and killed by a sword blow to the forehead His murder upset the fragile balance of power between England France and the Holy Roman Empire giving rise to a bloody civil war while impacting the commercial life of medieval Europe The eyewitness account by the Flemish cleric Galbert of Bruges of the assassination and the struggle for power that ensued is the only journal to have survived from twelfth century Europe This new translation by medieval studies expert Jeff Rider greatly improves upon all previous versions substantially advancing scholarship on the Middle Ages while granting new life and immediacy to Galbert's well informed and courageously candid narrative Charles the Bold and Italy (1467-1477)

Richard J. Walsh, 2005-01-01 This is a definitive study of Charles the Bold's diplomatic and military relations with the Italian states taking full account of economic policy The book makes extensive use not only of the great mass of diplomatic correspondence in the archives of Florence Mantua Milan Modena and Venice but also of Charles financial records in the archives of Brussels and Lille The author s mastery of these primary sources is complemented by judicious use of a wide range of secondary material Aspects of Charles the Bold s relations with Italy have been considered in earlier literature but no study has before dealt with them comprehensively at any length This book fills that gap and places Charles reign in its wider European context

Dissident Identities in the Early Modern Low Countries Alastair Duke, Andrew Spicer, 2016-12-05 Alastair Duke has long been recognized as one of the leading scholars of the early modern Netherlands known internationally for his important work on the impact of religious change on political events which was the focus of his Reformation and Revolt in the Low Countries 1990 Bringing together an updated selection of his previously published essays together with one entirely new chapter and two that appear in English here for the first time this volume explores the emergence of new political and religious identities in the early modern Netherlands Firstly it analyses the emergence of a common identity amongst the amorphous collection of states in north western Europe that were united first under the rule of the Valois Dukes of Burgundy and later the Habsburg princes and traces the fortunes of this notion during the political and religious conflicts that divided the Low Countries during the second half of the sixteenth century A second group of essays considers the emergence of dissidence and opposition to the regime and explores how this was expressed and disseminated through popular culture Finally the volume shows how in the age of confessionalisation and civil war challenging issues of identity presented themselves to both dissenting groups and individuals Taken together these essays demonstrate how these dissident identities shaped and contributed to the development of the Netherlands during the early modern period

Painting in Bruges at the Close of the Middle Ages Jean C. Wilson, 2010-11-01

Civic Ceremony and Religion in Medieval Bruges c.1300-1520 Andrew Brown, 2011-03-10 Public religious practice lay at the heart of civic society in late medieval Europe In this illuminating study Andrew Brown draws on the rich and previously little researched archives of Bruges one of medieval Europe s wealthiest and most important towns to explore the role of religion and ceremony in urban society The author situates the religious practices of citizens their investment in the liturgy commemorative services guilds and charity within the contexts of Bruges highly diversified society and of the changes and crises the town experienced Focusing on the religious processions and festivities sponsored by the municipal government the author challenges much current thinking on for example the nature of civic religion Re evaluating the ceremonial links between Bruges and its rulers he questions whether rulers could dominate the urban landscape by religious or ceremonial means and offers new insight into the interplay between ritual and power of relevance throughout medieval Europe

Humanistica Lovaniensia Gilbert Tournoy, Dirk Sacre, 2001 Volume 50

Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt Boudewijn Bakker, 2017-07-05 Offering a corrective to the common scholarly characterization of seventeenth century Dutch landscape painting as modern realistic and secularized Boudewijn Bakker here explores the long history and purpose of landscape in Netherlandish painting In Bakker s view early Netherlandish as well as seventeenth century Dutch painting can be understood only in the context of the intellectual climate of the day Concentrating on landscape painting as the careful depiction of the visible world Bakker's analysis takes in the thought of figures seldom consulted by traditional art historians such as the fifteenth century philosopher Dionysius the Carthusian the sixteenth century religious reformer John Calvin the geographer Abraham Ortelius and the seventeenth century poet Constantijn Huygens Probing their conception of nature as the first Book of God and art as its representation Bakker identifies a world view that has its roots in the traditional Christian perceptions of God and creation Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt imposes a new layer of interpretation on the richly varied landscapes of the great masters In so doing it adds a new dimension to the insights offered by modern art historical research Further Bakker's explorations of early modern art and literature provide essential background for any student of European intellectual history
