A New Day Rising Lauraine Snelling, 2006-05 Lauraine Snelling's bestselling series Red River of the North tells the story of Norwegian immigrants surviving their first seasons in America on the virgin prairie. A New Day Rising (Red River of the North Book #2) Lauraine Snelling, 2006-05-01 Spring of 1884 in Dakota Territory brings the promise of A New Day Rising. The dream of a farmstead and a good life in America had led Roald and Ingeborg Bjorklund to cross the Atlantic and pioneer the virgin prairie of Dakota Territory. But Roald's tragic disappearance in a winter storm had turned Ingeborg's dreams into a living nightmare. Against nearly impossible circumstances and overwhelming grief, she struggles to keep the farm and her family together. Finally, with the coming of spring and the arrival of Roald's distant cousin to temporarily take over the heavy fieldwork, Ingeborg is definitely on the mend after the long winter of darkness of both her soul and mind. Able to return to her care of the children and the soddy, Ingeborg cannot ignore the joy that Haaken brings to their lives or the attraction she begins to feel toward him. When Roald's brother from Norway also arrives to help her, things become very complicated around the simple prairie dwelling. He reminded her of a Viking of Old. Could he be persuaded to stay? Red River of North Pack, Vols. 1-3 Lauraine Snelling, 1997-05 A Land to Call Home (Red River of the North Book #3) Lauraine Snelling, 2006-09-01 First the Land, Then Fire Nearly Destroys Them. Will they still hold to their dream? It had taken four long, difficult years to tame the virgin prairie of Dakota Territory. Looking back through all the heartache and the body-breaking labor, Ingeborg Bjorklund knew that God had been with them every step of the way. Dreams that had turned into veritable nightmares had been reshaped with the promise of a new day rising, and her marriage to Haaken had been its sure sign. Hjelmert travels west to work on the railroad, and after sending only one letter to Penny, who has agreed to wait for him, he is not heard from again. As the months pass, Penny is pursued by other eligible suitors, and her love for Hjelmert is sorely tried. Will he ever return to keep his promise? America's westward expansion continues, bringing the railroad to their area. Before them lies the challenge of proving up their homesteads, developing a sense of community, building wooden barns and houses, a schoolhouse, and a church, a grain elevator, and a store. Blessing in Disguise (Red River of the North Book #6) Lauraine Snelling, 2007-02-01 She had told him she was headed for Blessing. Why would he not take her there? The Bjorklund family has received word that Augusta Bjorklund is on her way from Norway to join them in North Dakota. When the train arrives in the town of Blessing with no Augusta aboard, the worried family hopes she will be on the train in the morning. But only her trunk arrives, so Bridget Bjorklund insists that Hjelmert, Augusta's brother, go find her. Augusta, after discovering her intended bridegroom had married someone else, decided to leave her broken heart in Norway and start a new life in America, helping her mother run her boardinghouse. But knowing no English, Augusta misunderstands a ticket agent's directions in St. Paul, Minnesota, and in the harried confusion, she boards the wrong train. When she arrives at the end of the line, she is met by a handsome young rancher, Kane Moyer, waiting for his Norwegian mail order bride. Tender Mercies

(Red River of the North Book #5) Lauraine Snelling, 2007-02-01 Is She Really Leaving Forever Tracing the difficulties and joys of carving out a life from the Dakota sod in the second half of the 800s Tender Mercies continues Snelling's Red River saga and will pull your heartstrings and make you feel the joys and frustrations of life on the open lands of the 9th century mid west The rich farmlands of the Dakota Territory in 1887 are finally beginning to yield the abundant harvest the pioneers had dreamed about so long The establishment of the railroad has brought significant changes to the small town of Blessing as well as prosperity to the Bjorklund family and their neighbors Among the townsfolk Reverend John Solberg despite being wary of matchmaking efforts in the past is developing a friendship with a delightful young woman through their common love of books Mary Martha has a gentle southern charm that wins everyone in her circle but too soon she is called on to return home to care for her mother She leaves behind many heavy hearts and countless questions of whether it will be the last time to see her

The Reapers' Song (Red River of the North Book #4) Lauraine Snelling, 2006-09-01 Ever so slowly Dakota Territory is being transformed from a vast prairie into rich farmland With the coming of the railroad the small town of Blessing begins to prosper and the Bjorklund family is reaping the promised harvest that had lured them from their beloved home in Norway But for Ingeborg and Haakan realizing their dreams will not come without a struggle After their own fields are harvested Haakan and the neighboring men take the steam engine and the separator on the road threshing for other homesteaders in return for a portion of their grain With Haakan away and the fields standing idle Ingeborg frets over work yet to be done Fearing an early change of seasons she takes matters into her own hands Has the land become more important to Ingeborg than her own family

An Untamed Land (Red River of the North Book #1) Lauraine Snelling, 2006-05-01 Proud of Their Heritage and Sustained by Their Faith They Came to Tame a New Land She had promised herself that once they left the fjords of Norway she would not look back After three long years of scrimping and saving to buy tickets for their passage to America Roald and Ingeborg Bjorklund along with their son Thorliff finally arrive at the docks of New York City It was the promise of free land that fed their dream and lured them from their beloved home high above the fjords of Norway in 1880 Together with Roald's brother Carl and his family they will build a good life in a new land that promises untold wealth and vast farmsteads for their children As they join the throngs of countless immigrants passing through Castle Garden they soon discover that nothing is as they had envisioned it Appalled by the horrid stories of fellow immigrants bilked of all their money and forced to live in squalid living conditions the Bjorklunds continue their long journey by train as far as Grand Forks From there a covered wagon takes them into Dakota Territory where they settle on the banks of the Red River But there was no way for them to foresee the price they will have to pay to wrest a living from the indomitable land The virgin prairie refuses to yield its treasure without a struggle Will they be strong enough to overcome the hardships of that first winter

A Dream to Follow (Return to Red River Book #1) Lauraine Snelling, 2001-10-01 It is 1893 and the first generation of immigrants who came to America for the promise of free land and a good life for their children have finally achieved their dreams They labored hard on the land and now have a bountiful heritage to pass on to the next generation However many of the young people aren t interested in becoming farmers they have aspirations of their own Thorliff Bjorklund has been writing stories and plays since he was a young boy and longs to attend college to study journalism But his father has other plans for him and refuses to agree Thorliff is torn between love for his father and the pull of his dream Must he choose between the two      Believing the Dream Lauraine Snelling,2010-11 For as far back as he can remember the dream of becoming a writer has burned brightly in Thorliff s heart But when he arrives at college things are not as he had imagined Thorliff longs for the familiarity and nurture of his loved ones back home The distance has created a rift between Thorliff and his childhood sweetheart The only bright spot in his life is his job at the town newspaper Will he be forced to leave one dream behind to pursue the other
